

There is a duty of 2d. a lb. on imported tomatoes.

COPSEWOOD COLLEGE

His Lordship the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. O'Neill, will open Muintir Na Tire Summer School of Agriculture at Copsewood College, Pallas-kenry, on Sunday next. The course is open to all young men and boys interested in the vocation of agriculture. Applications should be made at once to the Hon. Secretary, Muintir Na Tire, St Michael's St., Tipperary.

HEADMASTER'S APPOINTMENT SANCTIONED

Pleasure was expressed by the Clare Vocational Education Committee at the sanction by the Minister for Education of Mr. P. Vaughan as Headmaster of Scariff Technical School.

Mr. Sean Hayes said he was very glad that merit had been duly recognised by the Minister, and the people of the district would be glad also, as Mr. Vaughan was an efficient officer, a practical Gael, and a patriotic Irishman.

O'CONNELL'S GREAT GRAND-SON DECORATED

Captain Donal B. O'Connell, Manlagh, Killarney, a great grandson of the Liberator, was yesterday invested with the C.B.E. by King George VI. at Buckingham Palace. Capt. O'Connell commanded H.M.S. "Resource" for six years during the war. This was one of the longest commissions in the history of the British Navy.

HIRE PURCHASE ACT

The Hire Purchase Act, 1946, which comes into operation on October 1st next, contains valuable safeguards for the hirer or buyer. It requires that every hire-purchase agreement shall include a notice on to accept this and returned it to Miss O'Gorman with the following words across the bottom of the Order; "You can cash this if you wish." The matter came before the Committee at the monthly meeting (Saturday evening) and Mr. G. Griffin said £1 was a very fair sum to pay for the journey. The Committee decided to pay only the £1 and directed the C.E.O. to so inform the motor driver.

KEENLY REGRETTED

The death occurred unexpectedly during the week of Mr. Richard Cleary, Ballinard, Herbertstown, (writes our Hospital correspondent). Deceased, who was an extensive farmer and landowner, was a member of an old and highly-esteemed East Limerick family. He was immensely popular and his death, at an advanced age, is keenly regretted over a wide area. He was brother of the late Dr. J. Cleary, Gotoon House, Hospital, and father of Sister Brendan, Presentation Convent, Mooncoin, Co. Kilkenny. He was uncle of Dr. J. P. Cleary, Coroner for East Limerick, Gotoon House, Hospital, and of Miss T. M. Cleary, Medical Hall, Hospital.

DEATH OF ABBEYFEALE NONAGENARIAN

The death of Mrs. Johanna Lyons, of Knockbrack, Abbeyfeale, occurred at the fine old age of 94 and after a few weeks illness. A well-known and much respected resident of the district, her funeral to Abbeyfeale Parish Church on Sunday was of very large proportions, as was also the attendance at the interment in the Abbey Cemetery on Monday.

BACK TO NEW ZEALAND DIOCESE

The Rev. Father Con. Harnett, of