

posing a fine of
defendant looked
nd as he caused no
ld leave him off
elleher summoned
Oola, for being
orderly. The Ser-
the defendant was
g bad language at 20th June.
by the Justice to
conduct, the de-
o answer.
evidence by Supt.
nich it was stated
summons was pre-
against the de-
justice imposed a fine

PROTEST

V.A.D. TEAM SIGNS

est Ladies V.A.D.
ured so prominently
competitions during
years (writes our
st correspondent)
their resignation to
nty Divisional Dir-
rroll.
ood that the mem-
n have resigned as
inst the attitude
e Limerick V.A.D.
rd to the recent
of the team were:
sh, E. Brosnan, B.
Hanley and, M.

n Memoriam Cards and
s, apply to the LIMERICK
of latest designs.

, was done by a
impression of the
e. The weeds, etc.,
have been growing
months.
r. Healy—Witness
s asked by the de-
ct the field. He did
ve anything what-
the case. On the
visited the farm
was also there.
en, son of the pre-
said that he was
on the 18th Octo-
ion of the ground
and very rough to
e was a lot of
k leaves.
r. Fitzgerald. He

than here, and which should get preference.

HIGHLY RESPECTED FIGURE

A highly respected and very popular old resident of the district passed away on Sunday evening the 7th inst. in the person of Edward Mulvihill, Knockbawn, Athea, (writes our Athea correspondent). Coming of old stock in the parish, deceased, who was 78 years of age, had been ill only for a short while and his death is regretfully mourned by a wide circle of friends, who extend their sympathy to his bereaved family. He was privileged to attend at the last monthly Communion—prior to his demise—of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart, of which he was one of the oldest and most regular members. He was the father of Sister Anthony Joseph, Holy Family Convent, Jaffna, Ceylon; and brother of Very Rev. Father C. Mulvihill, D'Evereux Hall Orphanage, Natchez, Mississippi; and of Sisters Mary Catherine and Mary Leontine of the Mercy Convent, Pittsburgh. A very large cortege attended his funeral to Templethea on Tuesday the 9th inst. Rev. Father J. O'Beirne, C.C. officiated at the obsequies. Chief mourners were:—Mrs. Ellen Mulvihill, ex N.T. (widow); Mary, Josie and Peggy (daughters); Con, Tom, John, Patrick and Eamonn (sons).

EXEMPLARY LIFE CUT SHORT

Many tokens of sympathy and regret (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent) were associated with the death at an early age of Miss Kathleen O'Connell, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell, of the Square, Abbeyfeale. Gentleness, reserve and piety marked the years of her exemplary young life, a model to her associates and beloved in the home circle.
Many beautiful wreaths and Mass Cards were placed on the bier. The prayers at the graveside were read by the Rev. J. Halpin, C.C., Rev. C. Harnett, New York, and Rev. D. Murphy, C.C.

COUNTY LIMERICK RATE COLLECTORS

A special meeting of the County Limerick Rate Collectors' Association was held at 83 O'Connell St.

they should get it. It is remembered, too, that books can find their way
the hands of uncor-
youth as well as into the
readers who are sunk
basement. In all cons-
the world has infi-
enough of the ordinary
to drag people down, w-
giving licence to auth-
attach themselves to
demoralising agencies
tively and so insiduous
work.

* *
*

Nobody in his or her
would for a moment su-
that such things as a
and strychnine shou-
readily and easily avail-
every boy and girl in country. These poisons
ever, kill only the body,
those of the literary ord-
merely lower the menta-
but definitely tend to d-
the soul. Censorship of
and publications, theref-
a vital and indispe-
necessity and should ne-
relaxed or weakened.

* *
*

The point is freq-
made that as a rule th-sors have no really qualifications for their
They lack, it is asserted literary training them-
and are without the c-
discrimination to enable
to realise true literature they see it! This
obviously shallow arg-
that is very easy to den-
The answer is, of course censorship boards are n-
pointed to judge lit-
merit but to discover ar-
a ban on what is in its g-tendency indecent and tionable from the