MR. DE VALERA BEREAVED

The Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Wheelwright, half-brother of An Taoiseach (Mr. Eamon de Valera), died in Scranton (Pennsylvania) hospital on Monday from injuries suffered in a car accident on Friday.

Father Wheelwright was Superior of the Redemptorist House at Scranton. He visited this country in November and December last year, his first visit for more than 30 years, and stayed with Mr. de Valera at Blackrock.

On that occasion the late Father Wheelwright visited Killarney with An Taoiseach.

FIGHTING THE FOX MENACE

Stating that the war on foxes was meeting with great success in Co. Sligo, Mr. P. Whooley, secretary, informed Co. Sligo Committee of Agriculture that during the past month 170 foxes had been destroyed, while 300 had been killed since early in April. It was stated that the committee's scheme of paying 4s. for every fox and vixen destroyed, and 2s. for every cub, had contributed largely towards the efforts being made to reduce the fox menace to farmers.

ACCIDENT PROVES FATAL

With very much regret we announce the death, which occurred yesterday at Barington's Hospital, of Mr. Arthur Prossor, "The Rectory," Farranshone. Deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was seriously injured on the 12th inst., when, cycling on the Sarsfield Bridge, he came into collision with a motor car. His left hand had to be amputated as a result, and he remained in a critical condition until his death yesterday.

Deceased, who was a very popular citizen, had been on the staff of Messrs. Shaw and Sons, bacon curers, for over half a century. The deepest sympathy is felt for his widow and other relatives on their sad bereavement.

An inquest will be held in Barington's Hospital, this evening.

KILMALLOCK I.C.A.

Mrs. H. Spain (President) presided at a meeting of the Kilmallock Branch of the Irish Countrywomen's Association. The Guild's representative to the Association's Summer School at Garryvoe, Co. Cork, Miss E. Bailey, gave a very good account of how the delegates to the school spent their time. The members voted thanks to Miss Bailey for her lecture.
