District Justice Gleeson remarked that it was the usual case of a small trader who proceeded as if there was no rationing and then found herself in difficulty.

FORGED PAY CHEQUES.

American military police have uncovered a gang cashing forged American armed forces pay cheques totalling some 45,000,000 lire. The authenticity of the pay cheques was questioned when it was seen that instead of bearing the inscription "U.S. Navy Dept." the cheques had "U.S. Navy Dep."

CUPS PRESENTED

Mr. W. J. Tomkins, Manager, Munster and Leinster Bank, Hospital, in presenting the cups to the winners and runners-up, congratulated them on their success and on the grand display which they had given in the final match. He also complimented all competitors on the standard of play which had been maintained throughout the tournament and which he had considered very high. In conclusion, Mr. Tomkins said he would like to thank and compliment the club's joint hon. secretary, Miss E. Woods, upon whom the greater part of the work in connection with preparations for the tournament had fallen, and who had seen to every detail.
