You often said I would miss you,
Oh how your words proved true,
I lost the best and dearest friend
Dear mother, when I lost you.

—Inserted by her loving son, Fongy.
O'DONOGHUE (Second Anniversary)—In loving memory of my darling daughter, Christina O'Donoghue, 96 Oliver Plunkett Street, drowned on August Monday, 7th August, 1944, in the Shannon, at Island Bank.

Only a memory of a loved one,
And a sigh for a face unseen,
But a constant feeling that God Knows best what might have been.
God saw her life would be too
rough,
Her trials too great to bear;
He sent His Holy Mother down to take her to her care.

An angel took my flower away
Yet, I will not repine;
For Jesus in His Bosom wears
The flower that once was mine.
God gave us strength to bear it
And courage to fight the blow,
What it means to lose her
No one will ever know.

We do not forget you, Biddy
dear,
For memory grows sweeter with
each passing year,
You cannot return, so our tears
are in vain,
But we trust in Dear Jesus, to meet you again.

Fondly remembered by her fond mother, father, sister and brothers.
RYAN (First Anniversary)—In loving memory of John Ryan, 1 New Road, Singland, who died on 2nd August, 1945. R.I.P. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.
You often said that I would miss you,
Oh, how your words proved true.
