

the meeting of last night, the (Lickey) presidthat he had gn newspapers was being held allowing young papers in the ed that these ear and that rance was not k. He wanted Street Trading ng enforced.

ave seen girls selling news- asking about ve-Law. I want is not being know is that ye-law govern- was made, but don't know. fer this matter or a report. greed to.

MKHAHA

now complete mkhana to be Limerick, on st., commenc- me). A varied has been de- able perpetual d cash prizes Everything is vide for the ort of patrons, e afternoon is t. Details of tions will be ement on page who made his cety of Jesus, in, on Thurs- is a Limerick the late Mr. issioner, East wens. 4 Ash-and expressed a desire that they should join his Boys Town Choir on their forthcoming world tour. The necessary consent of their parents having been obtained, Miss O'Neill has now completed all details for their departure.

VOWS

It should be of interest to note that while the choir are on tour they will be accompanied by their regular school teachers to ensure that their education will not be neglected.

COLLAPSED IN STREET

An elderly man, Francis O'Callaghan, 1 John Square, collapsed outside the Limerick Employment Exchange yesterday morning. He was conveyed to Barrington's Hospital in the Corporation Ambulance and was dead on admission. The deceased, who was a tailor by trade, was unemployed. He lived with his wife and daughter.

As death was certified to be due to natural causes, an inquest was not deemed necessary.

ALLEGED DESERTER IMPRISONED.

James Ryan, a native of Tipperary, and alleged to be a deserter from the Eire Defence Forces, was, at Gurtin, Co. Tyrone, Petty Sessions, sentenced to one month's imprisonment for stealing £4 8s., a book of clothing coupons, and a watch from a house in which he had been given shelter for the night, and which he left at 4 a.m., taking the cash and other articles with him.

MYSTERIOUS WATERFORD EXPLOSION

What is locally described as "a terrific explosion" occurred at Waterside, Waterford, on Wednesday. Although inhabitants of the locality were able to indicate the area from which the noise proceeded, investigating Garda officials have been so far unable to account for its cause.

CONSIGNMENT OF GOLD

on the scheme, as they a better wages from farm ridiculous to place a ci on the wage level of worker.

Mr. O'Malley supported test and said that the y who had served their cor ing the Emergency were shameful treatment in t of employment.

The Mayor said that t tion proposed by Ald. would be declared passed ously. It was to be hope crying grievance unde the men laboured would ved without further dela

HORTICULTURAL ST SUCCESS

Patrick McNamara, ho student at Hillcrest Nurs sheedy, has just recei from the Royal Horticul iety that he has been a first-class certificate (j tion) as a result of the ex for which he sat last M is 17 years of age and learning gardening at Hi the past eighteen months

PERSECUTION ON ALLEGED

A charge that the U.S. Guam were prohibiting religious ceremonies on and had exiled all Catho except one, was made Harold L. Ikes, former tary of the Interior, in t issue of "Collier's." alleged that the U.S. carrying out non-democr tices, was subjecting the to arrest, trial and sent any offence up to and inc capital sentence without tion or indictment by a g and without jury trial.

SICK SOLDIER ASS GARDA.

A member of the Brit undergoing medical tre