

were doing. I would order the defendants to pay back the amount of the goods missing, and to come up for judgment if called upon within the next 12 months.

BARRINGTON'S BANK

The City Engineer's suggestion, that the lower deck of Barrington's Peir be made inaccessible to the public as a safeguard against the recurrence of an accident like that which occurred there recently, was referred to the Law Agent for legal advice at the meeting of the City Council on Tuesday.

CO. LIMERICK PRIEST BEREAVED

Mrs. Mary Ellen Carr, of Glenfield, Kilmallock, who died recently, was mother of Rev. J. A. Carr, C.C., Liverpool, and of Rev. Sister Kevin of the Mercy Order, Gravesend, Kent. She was niece of the late Very Rev. J. O'Kelly, P.P., U.S.A., and of the late Very Rev. T. O'Kelly, P.P., Ashford and Kilmeehy. She was sister-in-law of the late Very Rev. J. Upton Carr, P.P., Kilfinane. Her remains were removed to SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Kilmallock. Following Solemn Requiem Mass, the funeral took place to Athlacca.

AFTER FORTY-SEVEN YEARS

The indoor and outdoor staff of Kilmallock Post Office made a presentation of a case of pipes to Mr. Edmond Gilbert, of Gurrankeagh, Kilmallock, who retired recently after 47 years of unbroken service as a postman attached to Kilmallock Post Office. During his service Mr. Gilbert walked an average of 20 miles per day.

GARDEN FREAKS.

A monster cabbage head, weighing over 20 lbs., and a potato weighing 2 lbs. 2 ozs., have been unearthed in the garden plot of Sergeant McKeown at Glin Garda Station (writes our correspondent).

ouring. At its foot was signed the following:—"Illuminated by Tadhg O Maothain, Brugh Riogh." The first fourteen items were missing but this is how the remainder of the programme went:—Quadrilles (preceded by Grand March), Berlin Polka, Valetta Waltz, Plain Schottische, Waltz, Barn Dance, Maltese Polka, Quadrilles (preceded by Grand March), Highland Schottische, Versonviana, Waltz, Polka Mazurka, Quadrilles. Who says that that wasn't a varied selection? With a few fandangos and tarentellas thrown in, all Europe would have been represented. But the polkas and the quadrilles and the jigs and the reels are not the fashion any longer, and the negro tomtom dances have taken their place. Go bhfoiridh Dia orainn!

GLIN APPEAL FOR FARM HELP

On Sunday, at Glin Parish Church, the festival of the birthday of Our Lady (to whom the church is dedicated) was observed with reverence by the parishioners. Large congregations attended all Masses and many received Holy Communion after the early Mass, writes our Glin correspondent.

Appeals were made at both Masses for volunteer labour to help farmers in need of assistance in the saving of their now badly damaged crops. Farmers in the Glin area, however, had been providentially saved from severe damage by the recent floods.

LARCENY OF A CAP

At Kilfinane Court, before Mr. M. Noonan, B.L. D.J., Patrick Barry, Killinane, Galbally, was charged at the prosecution of Supt. H. J. Keegan, Bruff, with the larceny of a gent's cap, the property of Daniel Lysaght, of the same address. The accused pleaded guilty and the cap was ordered to be restored to the owner, whereupon the Probation Act was applied in the case.
