THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK.

WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET.

Wednesday, September 10th — The supply at to-day's market totalled a full seasonable supply, about equal numbers of heifers and cows; the supply on sale was of an average description, but did not include any of the cows or heifers. Fair attendance of buyers, wanting the best. The demand for promising lots was steady, and in the case of cows or heifers offering milking qualities prices were firm around recent rates; the supply of this class could have been better. Suitable in-calf heifers had good takers at steady rates, also good takers for heifers. Full seasonable turnout. Market practically cleared. The market was closed by Matt Mitchell, Ballybricken, who closed the market at £35 10s., the

I am thinking of you Paddy.

Thinking of you and thinking of you
Picturing you in my mind
Just as I saw you last
If all the world were Paddy.

I'd give it, yes, and I
To clasp your hand and smile.

And hear you say more.
