LATE GARDA BYRNES

The tragic death of Garda James Byrnes has shocked the people of Pallasgreen, with whom he was extremely popular (writes our Pallas correspondent). His quiet, unassuming disposition endeared him to everybody. To know him was to love him.

Nicker Church was crowded when Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. E. Kinane, C.C. Chief Supt. T. Dirreen, Supt. J. Dunning, and Inspector W. Burns, Limerick, with Gardai from Pallas and other stations, and a large number of friends, escorted the remains for some distance on the way to Aughrim, Co. Wicklow.

Supt. J. Dunning and Mrs. Dunning, Gardai F. Hollis, P. Mulrooney, T. Hurd, and J. McCabe (Pallas), and Detective-Officer M. Medlar, Limerick, were present at the graveside when the remains were interred at Askinagap, Aughrim.

FIRE NEAR BRUFF

The Limerick Fire Brigade was called to an outbreak of fire on the farm of Mr. Frederick Bevan, Camas, Bruff, in the early hours of Tuesday morning. The Brigade reached the scene of the fire in twenty-five minutes. They found some outhouses ablaze, which threatened a large rick of hay. The fire was got under control within fifteen minutes and it was then found that three young calves had been suffocated. The outhouse was gutted, but the roof did not give way. All other property, including the hay, was saved. Nevertheless, considerable damage was done.
