

forced labour, the terms ranging from five to twelve years.

Another tribunal, sitting in Slovenia, sentenced five priests to imprisonment with forced labour, and discharged two others, on charges of crimes against the State.

GARDA ON MURDER CHARGE

To-day, at the Limerick District Court, before Mr. J. M. Flood, B.L., D.J.,

Daniel Joseph Duff, a member of the Garda Siochana, Pallasgreen, was again put forward on the charge of having murdered Garda James Byrne at Mount Catherine, Pallasgreen, on 25th September, by shooting.

Supt. Dunning, who appeared for the prosecution, said that as inquiries were still proceeding a further remand would be required.

Det.-Sergt. Murphy then made a deposition to the effect that he needed further time to pursue his inquiries. He asked for a remand in custody for eight days.

Mr. Martin Tynan, solicitor, who appeared for the defendant, offered no objection.

The Justice granted a remand in custody for eight days.

NEW BISHOP CONSECRATED

In the Pro-Cathedral, Dublin, this morning, Right Rev. Monsignor Dunne was consecrated Bishop of Nara. The consecrating prelate was the Archbishop of Dublin, Most Rev. Dr. McQuaid, while the Bishop of Ossory, Most Rev. Dr. Collier, and the Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin, Most Rev. Dr. Keogh, also took part in the ceremonies. Included among the large attendance, which filled the Pro-Cathedral to overflowing capacity, were the President (Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly), the Taoiseach, and members of the Government and Oireachts.

cial on the 30th August he visited the C.I.E. hut from where the piping was stolen. He discovered that some of the piping had been thrown across the boundary wall into a field. The remainder of the piping was found in Donoghue's back-yard. Donoghue explained that he thought the piping was of no value. He had found it in a field, the property of a relative, and had removed it in case of any of the horses' feet coming in contact with it.

Answering Mr. O'Malley, witness agreed that Donoghue did not in any way try to conceal the piping. It was displayed openly in the yard. The defendant had never been in any trouble.

Gerard O'Donoghue said that his brother-in-law owned the field where he found the piping. He did not put any value on the piping and though he removed it to his own back-yard, it was of no use to him. There were some horses grazing in the field and he felt it was dangerous lying about.

The Justice dismissed the case.

BIG CO. LIMERICK LAND SALE

A residence known as The Towers, with a holding of about 180 statute acres, situated within a couple of miles of Kilmallock, were sold this week for the owner, Captain Lindsay. The sale was carried through by Mr. A. J. Sexton, auctioneer, Limerick, but neither the price nor the name of the purchaser has been disclosed. It is understood, however, that the price is over £10,000.

AT THE PARIS CONFERENCE

At 9.30 this morning the delegates re-assembled at the Paris Conference. Proceedings opened with the tabled discussion on the Bulgarian Draft Treaty. Presiding was Mr. Ernest Bevin, the British Foreign Minister.