

and also a member of the Government body set up to advise on the building industry.

HEATH TO DIE

Medical experts examined Neville George Clevely Heath, whose execution for the murder of Mrs. Margery Gardner at Notting Hill has been fixed for Wednesday next at Pentonville. Following on their report to the British Home Secretary, Mr. Chuter Ede, the latter today announced that he would not be justified in changing the course of justice.

TRAINING OF IRISH GROUND HOSTESSES.

A dozen girls between the ages of 21 and 26 are at the moment being trained as ground hostesses for Aer Lingus. The girls, who were unsuccessful candidates for air hostesses, will undergo a course of training under the direction of Chief Air Hostess Miss Edith Newman, and when qualified they will go to Shannon Airport to get experience in the handling of Continental traffic.

WHEAT IN SUGAR FACTORIES

For the first time in their respective histories the four sugar beet factories are at the moment using portion of their machineries to dry wheat taken in from millers' agents. About forty tons a day are being dried at Thurles, but, it is stated, this by no means represents the quantity that can be handled. The process requires the moisture content to be about fifteen per cent.

DEATH IN POND.

Death from drowning was the verdict at an inquest into the death of 70 years old Patrick Ryan, Bansha, Co. Tipperary, who was found dead, face downwards in a pool, near his home.

The match, after a short discussion, was re-fixed for Adare on November 3rd, with Lieut. S. Deignan in charge. In this official's absence, Mr. Michael Kennedy, Pallasgreen, was selected to do duty.

for both Troops by District Scoutmaster John M. Brosnahan, and applications for membership should be addressed to:—District Scoutmaster, Scout Den, Ozanam House, Hartstonge Street, Limerick.

The minimum age for boys desiring to be placed on waiting list is 11 years, but no upward age limit is observed. Only written applications will be considered in future for membership. Boys desiring to become members should write at once to above address.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN O'DWYER

It is with regret that we record the death of Mr. John O'Dwyer, Mount Pleasant Avenue, Limerick, which took place to-day after a protracted illness.

The late Mr. O'Dwyer was a member of the clerical staff of Messrs. J. McBirney & Co. for many years, and when this business concern was purchased by Roches Stores Ltd., he was retained as chief accountant. He played a prominent part in the building up of the old Drapers' Assistants' Association, a body that was later incorporated in the Distributive Workers' Union. A very active member of the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family, he was at the time of his death a prefect.

To the widow and family, we tender our deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

A 60 LBS. SALMON.

A salmon weighing just over 60 lb. has been landed from the River Tweed near Kelso, in Scotland. It exceeded five feet in length, and its girth approached 30 inches. The fish was caught by one of a group of poachers.

STILL TAKES WALK AT 105

The Rev. Arthur Sewell, of Millbrook, Saxon Road, Salisbury, who is 105 to-day, is believed to be the oldest clergyman in Britain. Mr. Sewell takes a half mile walk every day. He is a non-smoker but not a teetotaller.

Executive Committee and that Dr. O'Rahilly be to visit Limerick to discuss the subject.

An extended report of the session and Dr. O'Rahilly's in full will appear in our Wednesday issue.

DOGS ROAMING STREETS

(To the Editor "Limerick")

Dear Sir—Allow me to refer to the statements made by the respondent recently regarding the city streets, as a constant source of grave danger to all road users, particularly One never knows when a dog will make a sudden dash across the road in front of on-coming traffic, especially at a time when a car out of the way might be in front of an on-coming car. Would it not be possible for the proper authorities to pass a law compelling dog owners to keep their dogs within certain limits, or must we wait until some grave accident has taken place before the necessary action is taken? Trusting, Mr. Editor, your letter will have your usual publication and may stimulate a public protest against this menace.—I remain, Mr. Editor, yours truly,

WHITE FLOUR FROM

A cargo of 6,000 tons of white flour is on board the "Irish" at Houston, Texas, U.S.A. The ship has been chartered up by the U.S. shipping line and it is expected to arrive in Limerick within a month. A consignment of about 2,000 tons of white flour from U.S.A., is due to arrive at Cork on the "Irish".

GIGLI FOR DUE

Beniamino Gigli, the Italian tenor, is to sing in Limerick probably in December. Fielding, the impresario, has signed him up for a concert tour, beginning in Limerick next month.