 Mr. Power contended there was little doubt that the floods had affected the braking system of the car.

The Justice said that he would apply the Probation of Offenders Act.

DEATH OF MR. J. CROSBIE, GLENWILLIAM

The death has occurred during the past week of Mr. John Crosbie, The Cottage, Glenwilliam, Ballingarry, after a long and tedious illness, borne with true Christian fortitude and resignation to the Will of God. His remains were interred in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Ballingarry, on All Saints' Day in the presence of an extremely large concourse of friends, relatives and the general public. The deceased was for a number of years a trusted and valued workman of the late T. D. Athkinson, D.L., Glen-william Castle. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Crosbie, and his five sons—Timothy (Adare), John, Pat, Denis and James. Very Rev.
 T. Canon Wall, P.P., and Rev. D.
 O'Keeffe, C.C., officiated.

CROOM CONFRATERNITY

The first meeting of the re-organised Confraternity (women's section) was held on Sunday (writes our Croom correspondent). It was a most edifying spectacle when practically every women and girl above school going age in the parish received Holy Communion at first Mass. The evening ceremonies, conducted by the Spiritual Director, Rev. Father Kirby, C.C., and consisting of Rosary, Sermon and Benediction, produced...
