

GREYHOUND NOTES

BLACK THE MILLER."

track season came to an end on last Saturday when the 103rd meeting was held. The proceeds of the meetings were, as usual, for charity, and with the racing well, generally, the track have got the idea that a charity meeting. Well, they received many rebuffs during the season, though the fact that they ended operations on the debit side. The season was not a bad one from the point of view of good racing. However, they may feel justified over the lack of variety. Greyhounds were catered for by a sweepstake during the month of August, but the moderate entries had to occupy a back position in contrast to former years when a number of sweepstakes dispersed the fixture lists. Old hurdle racing was already I have commented on and now only hope that the season of the track for the year will see this side of the ledger.

TOP PERFORMERS.

Winner of the St. Leger, Star Point, Mr. Pat Sheahan's Lough Lad, who took the Open prize, must rank with the best as the outstanding performer of the year. There may be others whom their owners may regard as good as the trio but I am assessing the value of what has been accomplished at the Markets Field. The Lad, Star Point, in winning the St. Leger, did so without defeat in any of the previous rounds. This was the first time the winner of this classic, at Garryowen venue, steered clear of disaster in the initial stages. It was a pity that the dog failed to take on Loughane Roeside Laurel in one of the early races of the season. We could be in a position to proclaim one champion. Lough Lad, in winning the big St. Leger at odds of 7/4 against, against Dark Shadow by 2½ lengths after being badly left, proved himself to be a fine tracker. It was that this son of Manhattan, ex Hultoi's Lady Wanaha) was considered to be worth £1,600. It is the Lad's win over Lough Lad which put a four pound weight on his head at the time where he was purchased at the Bristol track. Mr. Lough Lad's (Charleville) Queen's won a great measure of
