

ce Granted

ON OF HALL

ing application for a came before Mr. H. L. D.J., at Hospital iday, 15th inst, when d applied for a dance spect of a hall at

ON OF PREMISES.

litchell, solr., appeared eant; Supt. H. J. Kee- Garda authorities, and Noonan, solr., for the eal Officer of Healh. l said that the appli- een adjourned from a rt, pending engineer's the suitability of the e said he was contest- r on the grounds that ot been given as re- e Act. He was also sure that the premises for the purpose.

yley, Sanitary Officer, r. Noonan, said he had premises. The sani- dation was primitive s were on rollers and outwards.

l said he had given er to the County Sec- lth. The dances were ilidhe dances.

UBLIC DUTY.

said he did not know y were to be ceilidhe he had got notice of y not be there that ere, he said, exercising and if anything hap- cal health authority first to be blamed. was in the hands of said he would grant r ceilidhe dances and ayment of one guinea he public health au-

Mr. Mitchell agreed to enable the E.S.B. heir witnesses.

liquid very gradually and, finally, the lemon essence. Mix well. Set on the heat and, stirring very frequently, bring to the boil. Cook for ten minutes. If preferred, it can be steamed. When done, pour into a wetted mould and leave to set.

WHEN COOKING POTATOES.

When cooking potatoes, add some onion to the water in which you are cooking. The onion can be sliced or grated. It will give a delicious taste to the potatoes.

DEATH OF MR. D. SHEAHAN

The death of Mr. Daniel Sheahan, which occurred suddenly at Limerick on the 8th inst., caused a great shock when the sad news reached his native town, Rathkeale (writes our correspondent there). Deceased, who was a traveller for O'Dwyer's of Cork City, was very successful in the commercial world. He was a member of a family long established in the victualling trade at Rathkeale. A brother, Mr. Wm. Sheahan, well known in athletic circles, has been prominently identified with the G.A.A. since its inception.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Friday evening, 8th inst., and the funeral, which was of large dimensions, took place to Askeaton on Sunday.

The officiating clergy were—Very Rev. C. Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Very Rev. T. Canon Murphy, P.P.; Rev. M. O'Brien, P.P.; Rev. P. Lynch, P.P.; Rev. T. Costello, C.C.; Rev. J. Lyons, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Enright, C.C.

DEATH.

CUSACK (Limerick)—Nov. 17th, 1946, at Barrington's Hospital, Patrick Cusack, New Road, Singland, Limerick, youngest son of the late John Cusack; to the inexpressible grief of his wife, family, brothers, sisters and a large circle of friends. Remains will be removed from Barrington's Hospital to St. Patrick's Church this (Monday) evening at 7 o'clock. Funeral to-morrow (Tuesday) at 3 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. (American papers please copy).

Public functions suffer through the lack of punctuality begets disgust many away alto

The organisers and of functions have in this responsible duty to the should make it a their proceeding pointed time, attendance then many. If this w strict rule—and and decency it s who are normally would very quick ways. As a ma these latter are to blame, for th taught by exper pect a late comm

There is no se in fixing an hour ing or function what its nature may be, and then start for another As a nation we ably prone to su and unbusiness This is a failing have no one to bl selves. It would b fore, if some gr set a drastic and line in the unf vance of strict p the starting of The lesson thus v very quickly get response from th