

viz., a motor car, the said vehicle in to interfere with thereby colliding ven by one Mary Kilmallock.

r., solr., defended. ted than on Sun- ptember, she was Kilmallock to Bul- onkey and cart. t Bulgaden there left-hand side of vere three motors op. She saw Mr. did not know at o a car and turn- hen went to the the road, where down by the car. m reversing she e right-hand side, n the middle of car was struck. ut from the car as hurt, and she r two legs were d three children of them was on EXAMINED.

—When coming heard the engine tor. There were Meade's, and if move at all he wards. She did way of the car way from it. She on the right side e did not say it or that she was ad one of the but that did not r guiding of the ot converse with omas Davern or presence. It was wo o'clock in the ough her solicitor, to Mr. Hogan She had to be m her father's the course of a week the position with regard to Christmas fare would be seriously interfered with.

The general impression gained by our representative was that wide-spread unemployment would be caused in Limerick if the unofficial strike in the sugar factories were to continue for any length of time.

KILTEELY FARMER

FOUND DEAD IN HIS HOME

Mr. Michael Torpey, farmer, who lived alone at Ballyvouden, Kiltteely, was found dead in his home by neighbours yesterday (Tuesday) (writes our Hospital correspondent). Deceased, who was last seen alive on Sunday, is believed to have died on Sunday night or Monday morning. An inquest was not considered necessary.

The late Mr. Torpey was a highly respected member of the farming community and was very popular in the district. He was cousin of Rev. Father Paul O'Shea, C.C., Ballina, Killaloe, Co. Clare; of Rev. Father James O'Shea, South Sixth Avenue, Maywood, Illinois, U.S.A.; of Sister Josephine, Presentation Convent, Fehard, Co. Tipperary; and of Sisters Seraphin and Josephine, Little Flower Convent, Chicago.

VESSELS COLLIDE

OVER 200 HEAD OF CATTLE DROWNED

Two hundred and ten head of cattle were drowned in the Mersey this morning when the vessel in which they were being conveyed collided with another.

and Son, solicitors, for of McCarthy's private restaurant.

SEVEN APPLI

LIMERICK LAD POST

At a meeting of Limerick Vocational Committee yesterday, Mr. Sean Hartney presiding,

The C.E.O. (Mr. Michael) reported that since he had been nominated for a successor to Mr. Namara as permanent teacher at Hospital School, he had received applications for the position.

After the C.E.O. had given the names of these applicants and their qualifications,

Mr. McCormack proposed Miss Eilis Ni Thuairn, B.Comm., H.Dip.Ed., for appointment to the vacant post at Hospital. Miss Tuairn was very highly qualified, daughter of Mr. Twomey of the City of Limerick Technical Institute, who had always given great assistance to Vocational Education.

Mr. Lillis seconded the motion, Mr. McCarthy supported and the Chairman, de la Torre Twomey's appointment. He also paid a tribute to the C.E.O. of Limerick Technical Institute.

SHOPS RI

ROBBERIES IN

Three shops in Be