provide employment for approximately 500 hands. This number will increase to one thousand or more when full production has been reached.

Mr. D. J. O'Malley, solicitor, who has been negotiating for sites in Limerick for the company, met the directors in Dublin during the week, when it was decided finally to select Limerick for the industry.

BELIEVED TO BE OVER 100

Mr. James Dore, Killoughteen, Newcastle West, who died rather suddenly during the week, is believed to have been West Limerick's oldest resident (writes our Newcastle West correspondent). Although there is no official evidence of his age, deceased is believed to have been over 100 years. He was in the very best of health up to the time of his demise, and was up to the present season one of the most active private producers of turf in the area. Deceased was brother of Miss Dore, dressmaker, South Quay, Newcastle West. There was a large attendance at the funeral to Churchtown Cemetery on Wednesday.

CROOM DRAMATIC CLASS.

The local dramatic class (writes our Croom correspondent) have begun the rehearsal of a play which they intend to produce early in the New year. With the cream of local talent as characters, everything points to a really good presentation, which is being looked forward to by all in the locality.

WAS VOTER IN LAND LEAGUE DAYS

The death has occurred of Mr.
Patrick Dillane, farmer, Killeany, Glin. Deceased, a member of an old Glin family, was the youngest voter on the local register in the Land League days. He leaves two daughters to mourn his loss.

The defendant sold the general dealer for 3/-.

The defendant said
ing on a few shillings.

Justice—I will give you not to take effect if you behaviour for six months.

Defendant—Thank you.
Give me my photo
now, sir.

The Justice then rectence of one month in against Foran, not to t she behaved herself next six months.
