

... Something w
one if we are to get
for the port.

PARTY TO THE DISPUTE.

...ly said that his firm
(s) were not a party
dispute, which had
tled on terms satis-
firm. His firm had
ermanent men to re-
r from the quayside
He would be treat-
n very unfairly if he hem off in order to employment to dock
e would not give way

—Did the dockers devour stores before?

ly—No, never. They
e so for other firms,
my firm.

No agreement was
s case, for no agree-

ARRANGEMENT TEMPORARY.

I understand that the
now made with the
ly a temporary one—
r ship comes to Lime-
they won't handle it
onditions are accepted.

—That is correct.

y—So that if another
r comes here the same
ise?

—That is quite cor-

But another ship with
come here.

That is the point. We something about this.
If it is the feeling of hat we should hold a th the dockers I will osition.

AL MEETING.

further discussion, it
sly decided to invite
a special meeting of Board on Monday next
ose of discussing the n of the trade of the

decided to invite to ne Employers' Federa-

both invites and defies analysis.

Crowded houses have greeted this great artist throughout Great Britain and Eire, and his tour, originally scheduled for thirty concerts, has been extended for forty more engagements, which will necessitate postponing his Australian tour, which was to have commenced in April, 1947.

NO IRISH HUNTING SONG.

Lecturing to the Irish P.E.N. Club in Dublin, Mr. Stanislaus Lynch expressed regret that Ireland had not yet been given her own Irish hunting song. He described the hunting field as "one of the most democratic places in Ireland."

ARCHBISHOP OF SYDNEY'S VISIT TO JAPAN

Cardinal Gilroy, Archbishop of Sydney, is expected to leave Australia for Tokio, Japan, to-morrow. He will visit Catholic institutions in Japan with a view to bringing about their reorganisation.

DEATHS.

BLACK—At her residence, 10 Sexton Street, North Thomondgate, Monday, 25th Nov., Mrs. Annie Black, beloved wife of Thomas J. Remains will be removed to St. Mary's Cathedral this (Monday) evening at 6.45. Funeral to burial ground on Wednesday, 27th, at 3 p.m.

O'CARROLL—November 24, 1946, at Stella Maris Nursing Home, Barrington Street, Ellen (Lil) O'Carroll, Edward Street P.O.. Deeply regretted by her loving sister, brothers and relatives. R.I.P. Remains will be removed to St. Michael's Church this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock. Requiem Mass on to-morrow (Tuesday) at 10 o'clock. Funeral at 3 o'clock same day to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

O'FARRELL—On 23rd November, 1946, Mary O'Farrell, 45, Quin's Cottages, Limerick; deeply regretted. R.I.P. Remains were removed to St. Michael's Church. Funeral on Wednesday at 3 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

is half Hyman
when the spell
Saccharissa return

*

WHITE FLOUR.

Contrary to po
arrival of white
sult in an impro
of the bread no
We are making t
the authority of p
know. The two t
white flour wil
stocks, as it will b
native wheat, but
must, by regulati
same standard n
colour of the bre
ted. Yet, an quality may be a
is what really colour. Medical
tells us that bro
superior to white.

*

LIFE-BOAT INS

It is gratifyin
Limerick is now,
doing its part to tenance of the M Institution. The l
our columns rece
F. Hofler, Sec
Branch, in wh
tribute was paid
for their gener heartening. A
the General Sec
Satterthwaite, co
Nash for all she
for this won organisation. Lady
and enthusiastic
charitable causes
ous friends wish
continued good h