SALE OF FARM, STOCK AND EFFECTS

At the Salerooms, Charleville (writes our Charleville correspondent). Mr. James Leeney, M.I.A.A., auctioneer, offered for sale by public auction, on behalf of the representatives of the late Mr. John Moynihan, a valuable dairy farm at Ballinakill East, Charleville, containing 37 acres 2 roods and 36 perches (S.M.). Annuity, £7 17s. 6d. and P.L.V., £24 15s. There was a large attendance of prospective purchasers, and bidding opened at £1,300 and advanced to £1,660, at which figure the holding was disposed of to Mr. John Twohill, Newtownshandrum, together with auctioneer's fees. Messrs. J. Binchy and Sons, solrs., Charleville, had carriage of sale

There was a subsequent auction on the holding of 12 dairy cows, 5 store cattle, hay, agricultural machinery, farm implements, household furniture, and other effects. The dairy cows made from £12 to £21; store cattle from £6 to £10; a 11-year-old bull, £14; a number of poultry, £3 15s.; hay, £3 a ton; potatoes about £2 a ton; cattle beet, £8 10s.; donkey and cart, £8; pony trap, £7 5s. Household furniture disposed of included an oak sideboard with bevelled mirror, circular mahogany table, chairs, overmantel mirror, lounge, beds, springs and mattresses, etc., all of which were sold off at satisfactory prices.

JESUIT DIRECTORY

THE ISSUE FOR 1947

The Irish Jesuit Directory for 1947, now in its twentieth year, is even more interesting than usual. Rev. Joseph Veale, S.J., tells in "Two New Saints" of two Jesuit Beati (who are also Sodalists) to be canonised during 1947. Rev. Stephen J. Brown, S.J., in a "Jesuit Miscellany," provides abundant information concerning Jesuits and their activities. "Vatican Radio" is the subject of an authoritative article by Rev. Edward O'Connor, S.J. In "An Irish Jesuit Visits Hiroshima," Rev. M. Bodkin, S.J., recounts his experiences in the wasted city of the atomic bomb. Rev. J. Foy, S.J., unfolds the adventures and hopes of Irish Jesuits in "The Irish Jesuit Mission in Hong Kong." The career of Rev. Luigi Taparelli, S.J., the first Catholic philosopher to work out a complete theory of international society, is brilliantly sketched by Rev. Michael Connolly, S.J., in "A Pioneer Catholic Sociologist." There are also 6 pages of useful information about the laws of fast and abstinence, etc.

Of course the Directory retains its characteristic features:—
 1. A Calendar or Ordu of some 90 pages dealing with the Mass of every day in the year.
 2. A section of 30 pages dealing with the houses and personnel of the Irish Jesuit Province.
 3. Its price—1/- for 176 pages. Price, 1/- 176 pages. By post, 1/3.

DEATH OF MR. D. MCCARTHY, KILCONLEA

There was a very large attendance of the public at the removal of the remains of the late Mr. Denis McCarthy, of Kilconlea, Abbeyfeale, to the Abbeyfeale Parish Church (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). Deceased, who attained the age of 86, had been ill for some weeks. Amongst his fellow farmers he was esteemed and respected for a kindly generous disposition and the exercise of estimable principles in all his ways. Many expressions of regret were tendered to the members of his respected family. The funeral to Knockane Cemetery was also of very large proportions. Prayers at the graveside were read

Date for finals to be fixed.

DEATH OF MR. MICHAEL J. BARRY

The death of Mr. Michael J. Barry, 1, Verona Esplanade, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, which took place in Barrington's Hospital on Thursday of last week came as a great shock to his numerous friends and acquaintances in the city and adjoining counties.

The late Mr. Barry was for many years a senior member of the staff of Messrs. White & Co., wine and spirit merchants. By his straightforward dealing, affability and great business acumen he had won not only the confidence of his employers but of the general public as a whole. In private life the deceased was held in affectionate regard by all who knew him. His friendships were intimate and sincere. It could not be otherwise, because a man of such upright character could not fail to make a deep and lasting impression on those amongst whom he moved. He was a splendid type of gentleman, a loving husband and father and a citizen who never failed to discharge his obligations to the common weal.

Deep and heartfelt sympathy is extended to the young widow, children and all the family circle in their bereavement.

The funeral on Saturday last, after Requiem Mass in St. Michael's Church, to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, was fully representative of all sections of the community, testifying to the high regard and esteem in which the deceased was held. It was, further, expressive of the sincere sympathy felt for the family in their irreparable loss.

OBITUARY

MR. JOHN M. O'SULLIVAN, BROSNA.

The death of John M. O'Sullivan, Brosna, at an advanced age, which occurred recently at his residence, removes a highly esteemed man, an exceptional personality, from the district. The remains were removed to the Parish Church on Tuesday of last week. Solemn Requiem Mass was offered next day by Father Tangney, P.P., assisted by Father Curran, C.C., as deacon, and Father Browne, sub-deacon.

The same clergy officiated at the burial in the adjoining cemetery.

The chief mourners were: Michael, Tim and John (sons); Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Leahy, Mrs. Brosnan and Helena O'Sullivan (daughters); Mrs. M. O'Sullivan, Mrs. T. O'Sullivan and Mrs. J. O'Sullivan (daughters-in-law); Mr. Griffin, Mr. Leahy, Mr. O'Toole and Mr. Brosnan (sons-in-law), and their families; Mrs. O'Connor (sister); Dr. M. J. O'Connor, Dr. T. E. O'Connor, Surgeon O'Connor, Lieut. Col. O'Connor and Jerry O'Connor (nephews); Mrs. Browne (niece); Michael Browne and Father Browne, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Sheehan (niece-in-law); T. Fitzgerald, E. Fitzgerald, D. Fitzgerald, T. Collins (nephews-in-law); also J. D. Harnett, D. F. O'Connor and P. M. O'Connor, Co.C., and Mrs. O'Connor, Abbeyfeale, and many relatives and friends.

KILLARDRY, BALLINACURRA, SOLD FOR £1,400 AND COMMISSION

Killardry, Ballinacurra, a two-storey semi-detached residence, held under lease, subject to a ground rent of £10 (P.L.V., £14 5s.), recently offered for sale by auction and withdrawn at £1,300, has now been sold by Mr. L. de Courcy, auctioneer, by private treaty to Mr. W. Leahy, solicitor, in trust, for £1,400. Mr. D. J. O'Malley, solr., had carriage of sale.

by the Very Rev. P. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F.; Rev. J. Halpin, C.C.; Rev. J. Liston, C.C.

for in-calf heifers went to Mr. Joseph Ryan Kyle, Broadford, Co. Clare, at £29 10s, top price for calved heifers going to Mr. Patrick Fitzgerald, Mountrice, Kilmore, at £27 10s. In-calf and calved cows, best, £37 10s. to £41 10s.; seconds, £31 to £36 5s.; others, £27 10s. to £30; small, £21 to £23 10s.: in-calf and calved heifers, best, £26 to £29 10s.; seconds, £21 to £23 15s.; small, £17 to £18 10s.

Stores:—A decrease in entries as compared with last week did not have any helpful effect on values. Trade was again quiet; the entry comprised mostly young cattle, and the general tendency was slightly lower rates, which was evident at the Munster Fair the previous day. Practically all the cattle on offer changed hands. Two year old bullocks and heifers, small, £12 10s. to £16 10s.; one and a half year old bullocks and heifers, best, £10 5s. to £11; seconds, £8 16s. to £9 14s.; yearlings, £7 to £9; weanlings, best, £5 10s. to £7; seconds, £4 10s. to £5.—Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.

LIMERICK CATTLE MARKET.

WEEKLY FAT STOCK MARKET, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3rd.

A fair supply of cattle and sheep on offer. In the sheep department there was a scarcity of good sheep. A number of pens lacked finish and these did not all clear. The cattle on offer were of a better description than at recent markets and trade for these was good, prices showing an advance as compared with recent markets. A complete clearance in this department was effected. Sheep, best, 115/- to 130/-; seconds, 90/- to 110/-; lambs, 62/6; fat heifers, best, £26 15s. to £30 5s.; seconds, £20 to £24 5s.—Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.
