

(city and y, 17.9% pre-
OF THE chamber fully right to hold annual general

These letters are, as usual, posted in the Chamber's reading room for any members interested.
This having been the last general meeting before Christmas, the President took the opportunity of wishing all the members a Happy Christmas and New Year.

DEATH OF MRS. T. MULCAHY, NEWCASTLE WEST

The news of the death of Mrs. Timothy Mulcahy, Connolly Terrace, Newcastle West, which took place unexpectedly on Sunday morning last, has occasioned deepest feelings of regret amongst a wide circle of friends and the general public, by whom the deceased lady was held so deservedly in the highest esteem. A lady who possessed all those fine qualities which distinguish the good Irish mother, she was, above all, deeply loved in her own family circle. For many years she never missed morning Mass in the parish church, and had been to Mass and received Holy Communion the day before she was called to her reward. Her death, therefore, was entirely unexpected and this had added to the poignancy of the sad event. She was a member of a very widely-esteemed and patriotic West Limerick family—the O'Connor family, Kilsconnell. The deceased lady was wife of Mr. Timothy Mulcahy, a well-known Newcastle West merchant for many years, and mother of the Misses Mulcahy, Mr. Dan Mulcahy, a popular journalist, and Mr. John Mulcahy, Garda Siochana, and Mr. Timothy Mulcahy, junr., of Dublin. The funeral, from the Parish Church to Grange Cemetery on Tuesday, was one of the largest that passed through the town for pears. Crescent made a great effort to retain the trophy, but a heavy ground put their gallant but vain effort home team are a sticky but for a slip in the first of the second half, when got through for a soft try, they may have been another game. The losers can console themselves on their effort, and can look forward with confidence for their games Senior Cup. Once down, no should be their motto.

Garryowen Fail.

Following the defeat of ourster XV by Leinster, our senior team met U.C.D. on but were severely trounced forwards did well, both in tight loose, but were taught a lesson backing up by the students they would do well to imitate

Week-End Games.

The only game at home for the week-end was the first of the Limerick Charity Cup between Richmond and Youngster, which was listed for Tullamore Park on Sunday next. Owing to soft condition of the pitch, it has been decided to postpone the fixture to a future date.

Garryowen are breaking ground on Sunday next, they travel to Tullamore to meet the home team. Cars leave the Catholic Institute at 9.30.

Bohemians go West to meet University College, Galway, on Sunday.

Garryowen—A. McMorris, Lalor, M. Leahy, P. Quilligan, Harris, P. Reid, S. O'Dea, Namara, W. Meaney, J. Keane, Laffan, C. Roche, T. R. Keyes.

many years and was eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held in the classes.

che
Pains
u out
you become ed, but avoid icky days by the Kidney
ect sluggish
this special
the kidney
are able to any excess
harmful
be upsetting
that Doan's
e, lumbago,
disorders,
ns and stiff
ts.
'S 1/3.
2/-

Mr. Dannelly
bourne—Cale-
ck. Mr. W.
—E. Cleary;
O'Callaghan;
nd M. Luby;
n, J. Clifford,
ron. Subs.:—
Murray. All
ounds at 12