

your home,
sparkle. Also remember it
by Ammonia.

R DEALER

BOX 8, DUBLIN
McEvoy's

S

ighties

d by dress de-
ies you've ever
e sketched here
weet simplicity

ave really new
to look after it.
delicate fabrics
er how quickly
easily it rinsed
do take extra
ags. Don't use
thoroughly.

HION SCOUT

ERS (IRELAND) LIMITED

CK

appropriate County Boards came
by return. Nothing has been done
yet.

The Chairman said that it was a fact that in this district, married people could not live together because of the housing shortage and also that there were cases of several families living in confined space in one house: this situation, he added, should not be tolerated in any Christian country.

A "45" Drive for the poor on Sunday, December 1st proved to be a great success.

OBITUARY

—oo—

MR. PATRICK SHEEHAN, GRANGE.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Patrick Sheehan, which occurred at the Co. Infirmity, Limerick, on 2nd December, after a short illness. Deceased was a native of Friarstown, Grange, Kilmallock. For a good many years he was Chairman of Fedamore Labour Club and a popular sportsman. The remains were removed to Fedamore Parish Church and interred in Ludden, the family burial place.

Clergy present were:—Very Rev. J. Moloney, P.P., and Rev. Father Wall, C.C., Fedamore.

Chief mourners were — Mrs. M. Sheehan (wife), John Sheehan (son), Nora Sheehan (daughter), Mrs. Mary and Willie Flood (daughter and son-in-law), Garret Sheehan (brother).

A large circle of friends and relatives attended the funeral.—
R.I.P.

Roslea (Co. Fermanagh) R.U.C. have seized 34 turkeys near the Fermanagh-Monaghan border, suspected of having been smuggled from Eire. The Northern Ireland price for turkeys is one shilling per lb. in advance of that paid in Co. Monaghan.

transport becomes available
flux of tourists will be tre
declared Mr. Joseph Coll York, who arrived in th
to-day to take up duty
District Manager of T.
Collins also predicted
development in air traffi
Ireland and the U.S.

LIMERICK MAN GETS LICENCE

Mr. Michael Walsh, W
Terrace, Limerick, a v
Rugby forward who Garryowen, has been aw
United States Civil A
Administration Aircraft D Licence. Mr. Walsh was
of the Department of Ind
Commerce Meteorologica
at Valentia, Foynes and
until he joined T.W.A.
He obtained his new Lice
result of an examination
and route familiarisation
Gander, Lisbon and Paris.

APPOINTMENT FOR ARCHITECT

The Galway Co. Manag
I. O'Flynn, F.L.A.A., has
Mr. P. J. Sheahan, M.R.I.
rick, as consultant arch
engineer for the carryin
alterations, and extension
Galway County Home,
and the Children's Home,
the minimum scale of
member of the Royal In Architects of Ireland.

BOY ATTACKED BY T

An eight-year-old bo
Greenan, was attacked
turkey cocks on his pare
at Ballinure, Newblis
knocked down. When re
his mother, however, he v
ing from only slight inju