COUNTY LIMERICK P.P. BEREAVED

DEATH OF MR. STEPHEN FITZGERALD

The death of Mr. Stephen Fitzgerald, of Kilmacow, brother of Rev. D. Fitzgerald, P.P., Kilcoleman, came as a shock not only to his family and relatives but to all those who, in the parishes of Ballingarry and Croom and else- where, had the pleasure of knowing him. A kindly, generous and most inoffensive gentleman, he was popular with everyone, and his death on Friday last, at the early age of 59, is keenly felt. He had been in his usual good health on that day, but was taken suddenly ill after chatting with some neigh- bours by the fireside until after 9 o'clock that night. Medical aid and spiritual attention were imme- diately forthcoming but despite every care and attention he quietly passed away. The funeral to Ballin- garry Cemetery on Sunday was of very large dimensions, a proof of the esteem in which the deceased gentleman was held.

The priests present at the obsequies were—Rev. D. Fitzgerald, P.P., Kilcoleman (brother); Rev. Father D. O'Keeffe, C.C., Ballin- garry; Rev. Dr. G. Casey, C.C., Adare; Rev. M. O'Brien, P.P., Castlemahon; Rev. Father G. Enright, C.C., Rathkeale; Rev. W. O'Donnell, C.C., Pallaskenry; Rev. W. O'Connell, C.C., Kilcoleman; Rev. J. Lyons, C.C., Rathkeale; Very Rev. J. Canon Wall, P.P., Croom; Rev. D. Crowley, C.C., do.; Rev. M. Kirby, C.C., do.; Rev. Father E. Punch, P.P., Crecora; Very Rev. T. Canon Wall, P.P., Ballingarry; Very Rev. Canon Wallace, P.P., Kildimo; Right Rev. Monsignor Hannon, P.P., V.G., Newcastle West; Rev. Father O'Dea, C.C., Kilfinny; Rev. Father T. Costelloe, C.C., Rathkeale; Very Rev. T. Canon Murphy, P.P., Croagh; Rev. Father J. Kelly, C.C., Granagh.

To his brothers and sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Fitzgerald, and to his rela- tives, sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement.
