

1945 and 12th April, the said total sum period while employed Erick Clothing Factory, which period he signed payment register at the age.

This is a very serious

O'Malley, solicitor, who said he was putting forward of guilty. The defendant offer to pay back the

This man was in very great trouble which adds to the gravity of the case.

O'Malley—It was only temporary employment at the time, he said.

—Well the facts are definitely employed during the period stated.

This is a pretty bad case. I would suggest a fine of £2, and allow the defendant one month to pay the money received.

CHARGED WITH STEALING TURF.
Madden, 3 Old Windmill Lane, Limerick, was charged with the possession of a quantity of stolen turf property of Charles

Walton, replying to Inspector, who prosecuted, remembered the 7th day of the month when he came in with a lorry load of turf and another defendant and another man with him. When they were in the city they all decided to have their dinner. Subsequently the case came along after the defendant and found that the turf was gone from the lorry at Tanyard Lane. The matter to the

In evidence, admitted the defendant had stolen the turf but did not know the owner's name. He thought it was his own boss, and sold the turf to the

The defendant said he would dismiss the defendant on condition that the defendant would pay the £7 5s. compensation.

McNeice, solr., who said that the defendant would do this. He had the defendant in error.

On taking regarding the defendant having been given, the defendant dismissed the charge.

In a row, Moran attempted to stab this girl with a cake knife.

Alice O'Regan corroborated the evidence of the Inspector, and said she was attacked with the knife about the neck, but there was no mark of any injury now left on it.

Remarking that "she should take the pledge," the Inspector said the accused was in custody until the 11th of December.

The Justice imposed a sentence of two months imprisonment to date from the time of arrest.

DEATH OF MR. TIMOTHY WALSH

With very much regret we announce the death of Mr. Timothy Walsh, 78, Clare Street, Limerick, who passed away on Saturday last. The deceased, who had reached an advanced age, had been ailing for a considerable time back. A native of Cappamore district, he came of a highly respected stock and was himself deservedly esteemed by a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. A man of many fine qualities and characteristics, he was a good husband and father and in every other respect as well an exemplary citizen. He was father of Mr. Thomas Walsh, a deservedly popular Linotype Operator attached to the staff of the Limerick Leader, to whom and the other bereaved relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy. The funeral took place on Monday from St. John's Cathedral to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, the cortege being very large and representative.

VOTERS' LIST

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir,—To-day the County Registrar informed me that persons who were temporarily absent from their homes on last September could be registered as voters for the coming year. In view of this, I would ask the friends of any persons who were working temporarily out of the country on last September to claim their votes for them before Monday next, 23rd inst.—I am, dear Editor, yours faithfully,

J. C. HICKEY (Mayor).

GREETINGS FOR D.J.

DEFENDANT FINED

To-day at Limerick District Court, before Mr. J. M. Flood, B.L., D.J.,

Patrick Moloney, 6, Old Dominick St., Limerick, was summoned for being drunk and disorderly and for assaulting Annie Keogh at "The Parade," Castle Street.

Mr. D. G. O'Donovan, solicitor, appeared for the defendant.

Guard Mahony said that he was on duty in Nicholas Street on the 23rd November at about 11.35 p.m., and he saw the defendant striking the girl, and the defendant gave trouble when being arrested.

Witness, answering Mr. O'Donovan, agreed that the defendant had a lot of drink taken.

Annie Keogh, in evidence, said that she went into a fish and chip shop, and in a row which ensued, she fired a bottle and defendant then struck her.

Justice—This apparently was a love affair.

Witness—Yes.

Mr. O'Donovan—They are the best of friends again—they made it up (laughter).

The defendant, who did not appear, was fined 10/-.

TO RINEANNA TO MEET BISHOP

Senator D. J. Madden, his sister, Mrs. Cremin, Newcastle West, and his nieces, the Misses Mary and Greta Cremin, visited Rineanna on Tuesday to meet Most Rev. Dr. Morrow, of the Indian Missions, who stopped at the Shannon Airport on his way to Rome. His Lordship expressed satisfaction at the facilities available at the Airport.

Rev. W. Cremin, S.C., a native of Newcastle West, and nephew of Senator Madden, is Secretary to Dr. Morrow.

CAROL SINGERS

In the city streets this evening the members of the Legion of Mary will chant the carols, as is customary during the festive season.