

over, Carriage
se 2/- extra.

Nursery, ICK.

RICT MENTAL
TAL.

LAUNDRESS
RED.

invited by the or the post of ss. Applicants, be over 21 years 30 years on the required to have dry work and of machinery.

annum, rising by of £6 per annum
, together with s, fuel, light and or pension pur-o.a.

ointed will be medical examion probation for be required to ating experience,

Birth Certificate
timonials, should ned on or before y, 31st inst.

OX,

Chief Clerk.
(f21-28c)

ce Everywhere."

WOOD

lding, Accounting ines.

ERICK 711.
& Copying Work.
tt Fisher, Ltd.,
St., Limerick.
(f dec 28)

years, not alone in the force movement in which our Company figured in the pre-truce and post-truce periods, taking part in major engagements at the risk of life itself, but giving as well constant attention to the cultural and political phases, thereby taking a hand in the composite and undivided work of real nation building, actuated only by the ideals which Irish patriots in every age laboured to bring to fruition.—(Signed)

TADHG O hAODHA,
Athlacca, Kilmallock.

WAS WELL-KNOWN ATHLETE

The death took place recently at an advanced age (writes our Hospital correspondent), of Mr. John McEniry, at his residence, Clash-dromsmith, Emly. Deceased, who was a very popular figure in the district, was in his early days a well-known athlete. His remains were removed to St. Ailbe's Church, Emly, and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large gathering of friends and sym-pathisers.

The chief mourners were: Timothy, Thomas, Michael and John (sons); Kitty, Mrs. A. O'Dwyer and Mrs. B. Fahy (daughters). The officiating clergy at the graveside were: Very Rev. L. Meany, P.P., Emly; and Rev. E. Ryan, C.C., do.

Itching Skin

DON'T SCRATCH at burning and itching caused by eczema and other skin irritations. Get DOAN'S OINTMENT—made especially for the quick relief of itching skin. Just try this wonderful ointment and see how quickly it relieves the fiery burning.

DOAN'S OINTMENT, 1/3s 2/6.

for. These are the unsung of the industry, you may sa are the ladies with the torc guide you through the dar to your favourite seat, and occupied, they suggest th best. It is surprising tha patrons have a favourite s it is more surprising still that the girls are aware of on recognising them show without hesitation, to favourite." They are am best critics of pictures an Monday's performances, are tired of the entire program deed it has to be a very go to hold their approval for a week. Believe it or not, them, when they finish aro at night, make their way to cinema, and even though gramme is usually well st makes no difference to enthusiastic film "fans." are the ladies behind the who, with operators and o known workers in cinemas, to make the cinema-going and me, as much a plea possible.

(Postscript—An unusual a city cinema last week number of the usherettes gloves due to the intense c

THIS IS TRUE.

While in New York, M.
the Soviet Foreign Secretar to see a new film. "You he explained to a friend, about that great Russian
The friend, thinking M. was referring to "The Point," a new Russian film out that it would not be ha premiere for two days.
said Molotov, "I don't me picture. I mean the one Russian named Jolson. H and my father went to