

City Sudden Death

A young man named Joseph Meade, aged 23, of 41 James Street, off Lower Gerald Griffin street, was removed in the Corporation ambulance from the New Street to Barrington's Hospital on Friday evening, where he was found to be dead on admission.
