

County Man Found Dead

Mr J Kelly, unmarried, about 65 years old, a recipient of the Home Assistance, who lived alone at Glebanaar, Kilfinane, co Limerick, was found dead in his home on Sunday by the Kilfinane Gardaí, when they broke open the door of his house, after neighbours had notified them that they had not seen the deceased for a few days.

He was lying on the floor with his boots off and apparently had been dead for about five days.

Dr J Ryan, MO, Kilfinane, performed a postmortem.
