

---

Prominent Hurler's Death

---

Mr Joseph O'Grady, Blackboy Pike, Limerick, who has died in England in his early fifties, was a great Gael and prominent hurler. He was a great supporter of the Olanaghan Club. He was arrested and spent some time in prison during the war of independence. Five times in all he figured with winning Olanaghan combinations in Limerick Senior County Hurling finals, the years being 1914, 1915, 1916, 1918 and 1920. He was a member of the Limerick team that won the 1923 Munster Championship, but lost to Galway in the All-Ireland final.

---