

Laid to Rest

Old I.R.A. Man's Funeral in Limerick

Military honours were accorded at the funeral of Mr John Fitzgibbon, 8 Punch's Row, Limerick, who was a member of the former "B" Company of Fianna Eireann and served during the Anglo-Irish War. Former colleagues of the Fianna paid him a last tribute by firing three volleys over the grave and the "Last Post" and "Reveille" were sounded.
