

Death of Rev. Edward McLoughlin, C.S.S.R.

Rev Edward McLoughlin, O.S.S.R., who has died in New Zealand, was a well known priest and conducted many Retreats and Missions in different parts of Ireland. Born 57 years in Ballina, he was ordained in 1917. He went on the Australian Mission when it was a Vice-Province of the Irish Redemptorist Order, and remained there when the continent was constituted an independent Province. In addition to his missionary work - he conducted many religious broadcasts and was also a noted educationist.

Father McLoughlin was brother of Rev M McLoughlin, O.S.S.R., Mount St Alphonsus, Limerick, and Rev J McLoughlin, O.S.S.R., St Patrick's, Esker, Athenry.
