

spoonful of vanilla and add to the other ingredients, together with half a teaspoonful of vanilla essence. Mix well, transfer to a greased six-inch cake tin, and bake in a moderate oven for one and a quarter hours.

RETIRED CIVIL SERVANT PASSES

The death occurred suddenly of Mr. James Mulcahy, Dually, Newcastle West, member of an old and esteemed West Limerick family (writes our Newcastle West correspondent). Deceased, who had reached an advanced age, served for some forty years in the Customs and Excise department in Cork, and retired from the service about ten years ago. On the occasion of his retirement he was presented by his colleagues with a gold watch as a token of their esteem and regard. He is survived by a brother, Mr. Cornelius Mulcahy, Dually. There was a large and representative attendance at the funeral, which took place to Churchtown Cemetery. Right Rev. Mgr. Hannan, P.P., V.G., assisted by Rev. M. O'Grady, C.C., and Rev. M. Kelly, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

KILMALLOCK LAWN TENNIS DANCE

"On with the dance, let joy be unconfined," was the motto of each and every dancer who had the good luck to participate in the great St. Stephen's Night dance given by the Committee of the Kilmallock Lawn Tennis Club in the People's Hall (writes our Kilmallock correspondent). The dance was undoubtedly one of the greatest successes yet held, and the organisation behind the fixture was complete in the carrying through of all details which combine to reach the final goal of happiness for all who attended and who enjoyed one of the best nights ever.

houses, thereby giving much-needed employment, besides having the plots ready for the spring tillage.

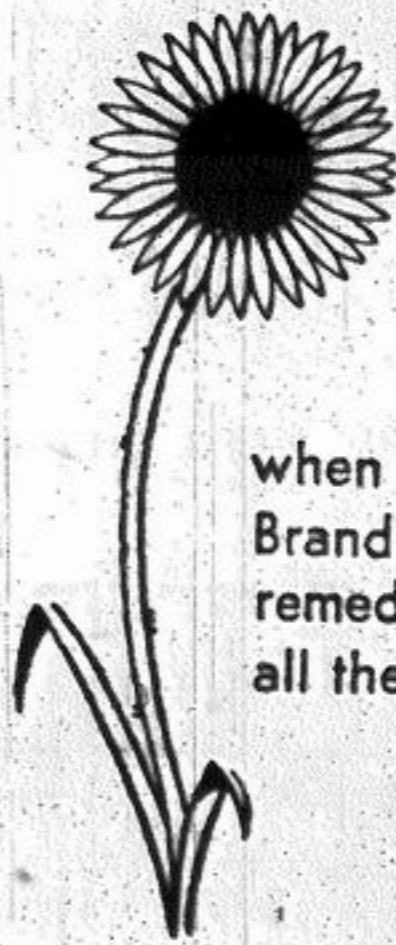

(2) To immediately bring in a scheme for the acquisition of the extra half-acre plots for the cottiers who received none in the last scheme.

(3) To bore a well for the needs of the cottiers in Boherduff, in the Caherelly Electoral Division; also to repair pump at Caherelly N.S.— JOHN KEOGH (Hon. Sec.).

THE LATE JOHN IRWIN, FEENAGH

The death, which occurred on Christmas Eve, of Mr. John Irwin, has removed from Feenagh one of its oldest and most esteemed citizens. Born some ninety years ago, the late Mr. Irwin farmed extensively for many years in his native Feenagh, where his sterling qualities, both as neighbour and friend, endeared him to all. A member of one of the oldest and most respected families of West Limerick, the deceased was brother of the late Father Jerome, O.Cist., Mount St. Joseph's College, Roscrea; of the late Mothers Patrick and Catherine Irwin, and of the late Sister Berchmans Irwin, Presentation Convent, Limerick.

To his many relatives and friends his passing has been a source of deep regret. May he rest in peace.

Fresh as a daisy!

That's how you'll feel when you start taking Kest Brand Epsom Salts. It's the sure remedy for constipation and all the ills that spring from it.

KEST

COMPOUND EPSOM SALTS TABLETS

it. hav
wit
of
floo
juic
Boi
set.

At
her
with
taki
very
who
"M
take
mon
rheu
has
year
them
them
with
say
man
old,
is."

Rh
the
in th
of K
uric
of th
it th
Then
place
and y
All
1/9 p

THE
never
in C Calve
5/6.
Timb
Jaws
H. J
Cork.
Lime

the
urg-
and
bad
and

the
urg-
and
bad
and

the
urg-
and
bad
and

the
urg-
and
bad
and

the
urg-
and
bad
and

the
urg-
and
bad
and

the
urg-
and
bad
and