

CISTERCIAN ON VISIT

Rev. Albert O'Donoghue, O.Cist., is on his first visit, since his ordination, to his home at Castle-farm, Hospital. Father O'Donoghue celebrated his first Mass in St. John's Church, Hospital, on Monday last.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Mr. P. O'Brien, mason, Kilfinane, aged about 65, unmarried and living alone, was found dead in bed by Mr. P. Heffernan when he called to deliver milk on Monday morning. Mr. O'Brien had been in indifferent health for some time.

OLDEST DONEGAL MAN DIES

Believed to have been the oldest man in Co. Donegal, Mr. Daniel Campbell, of Doorin, Mountcharles, has died at 104 years. From boyhood until he was 80 years of age he worked on a farm and fished as a hobby. For 38 years he lived alone.

LINER CALLS AT COBH

The s.s. "America," of the United States Lines, called at Cobh on Monday, westward bound from Cherbourg and Southampton, and embarked 98 passengers and 328 sacks of mail for New York.

SERGEANT'S TRANSFER

Garda Sergeant D. McCarthy, who has been transferred to Ballylanders from Newport, was in charge of Newport Garda Station for several years before his transfer.

Due to the efforts of the Bruff Parish Council, who requested the repair of the road, repairs are being carried out on the Bruff-Croom road, which was badly in need of attention (writes our Bruff correspondent). The Parish Council hopes, however, that the present repairs, which consist of filling the pot-holes with loose stones, will be followed by a more permanent repair.

LATE FATHER CASEY, P.P.

Monday, 6th January (writes our Askeaton correspondent) marked the first anniversary of the tragic death of the late Very Rev. Father Casey, P.P. A crowded congregation was present at the Mass, celebrated by Rev. Father Rea, C.C., for the happy repose of the soul of our late revered and well loved pastor. May he rest in peace.

FROM FLOOR SWEEPER TO MILLIONAIRE

Mr. C. S. Woolworth, one of the founders of the Woolworth chain stores, has died at his home in Pennsylvania, aged 90. His first job was sweeping floors at 16/8 a week, and he later became a millionaire when the chain stores enterprise developed.

FINED £10 AND HIS LICENCE SUSPENDED.

At Kilkee Court yesterday, Michael Barry, Roxboro' Road, Limerick, was fined £10 and his driving licence suspended for six months on a charge of driving a motor car in a manner dangerous to the public.

THE A
A cert
review c interesti
the City
opened l
ment co
as a piec
If all g
will be c
early in
yet in electricia
As it wi
more be
"news"
to prov
for our

WILD

At pre
in circ
something
epidemic
broken
be expect
exaggera
family,
diagnose
and as the oth
family h
no caus
the part
Public I
situation
present
being c
tracing