BOROUGH COUNCIL OLD MAN'S DEATH CLEARED AREAS CHAPLAIN'S DEATH

TENDERS FOR HOUSING

SCHEME

The Mayor (Mr. P. O'Connell) at a meeting of the City The other Aid J. Reidy Ald. J. Aid M. Hartney Messrs. P. Michael B. O'Malley, solicitor; J. C. Hickey, G. B. Dillen, P. J. Cusack, Donnetlan, M. J. Keyes.

Mr. O Malley said that he desired congratulate the Manager on the improvement he had effected respect of the collection of re-

AM Reidy-What districts are affected by the improvement re-

Manager-All the areas that had we-weekly collection.

Ald Reidy-That, certainly, Mr. D'Malley-It is an improve- examination revealed a fracture of ject, I would like to stress the need to his many sustained efforts to that is much appreciated. SMALL DWELLINGS ACT. Ald Reidy said that some time go the operation of the Small being struck by a motor car. arrears had exceeded the aggregate of one penny in the f. He now saw half-penny in the aggregate, That been deprived of employment on city housing schemes to the advantage of workers who were not sepresentations had been made to centre of the road a few minutes City workers, when available. get preference on city the contractors concerned.

nion that there were still owis on the lamps.

Public Lighting Officer of the SHEETER FOR BUS STOPS

McGuire asked if anything ity. It was a shame to have queues temises blocked up in this those are along the quays. matter was not further dis-

Department to the effect that it was would be sufficient for Lime-This set would be erected at netion of O'Connell Street and William Street HUUSING TENDERS

The Manager reported that the ollowing tenders had been received Ballinacurra (Weston) Scheme of 128 houses:-Masses McCaffrey and O'Carroll, Limerick-£213,246 12s. 10d. Messes, G. K. Nevin and Co., Ltd. ullamere-f195,806 3s, 7d. P. Molloy and Menste. imerick - £193,910 198, 7d.

Lanigan Bros, Limerick 1249,254 5s. 2d. Mr. J. J. Murphy, Limerick-(215,542 7s. 8d. Murphy Bros. (Cork)

Ltd.+-£184.105 16s. 1d. The lowest tender (that of Messrs lurphy Bros. Cork), the Manager dded, had been accepted.

HONOUR FOR LIMERICK

Sovereign and Military Order the body. sh the following: The Prince Grand Master of the overeign Order has conferred the nata Cross of the 3rd Class upon fr. Tadhg Smalle, P.C., Glenville, defendant. In the course arranchone, Limerick, who is Secetary in Charge of the Order of St. employed as a hackney driver ohn Ambulance Unit in Limerick Joseph Breen, Sixmilet ardinal in Rome. a Visiting Justice to he was travelling at between ing, at 6 o'clock, Funeral

Small Dwellings Act Result Of Accident

DANGEROUS DRIVING CHARGE

A recent fatal accident on the Sixmilebridge, was charged with ous to the public.

Supt. P. Colleran prosecuted and presiding. Mr. D. J. O'Malley, solr., defended. The Superintendent explained that the accident took place near Rineanna.

geon, Limerick Co: Infirmary, said rick. only a weekly collection have now that the deceased, Francis Mason, The City Surveyor said that he with the members of the Defence

Raymond Crowne, Beechy, Ennis compulsory powers, from the departmental reports that Road, stated in evidence that on the arrears had been reduced below the evening in question he was people would be able to get finanness saw the lights of a car comthe proposed that representations to that effect be made to the Minister.

And Docater

An Cusack said that he had near the grass margin and on the for housing. omplants from different types of same side as the car which was Mr. Hickey-I also support the wards of 60 clergy present. having ben scattered on the road, lict sites, Witness then said to the driver of BUILDING AS FAST AS THEY the car that decrased was the Ald. Bourke said that similar man he had seen walking on the before. The driver then said that the crown of the road

Manager-The whole lighting of HEARD SCREECH OF BRAKES. having seen the decease on the centre of the road tired and was dragging his boots after him. Witness saw a bus and swerving to the right to avoid the man who had just passed. hundred yards. Witness then went to the scene of the impact and in his opinion the injured man was Frederick White said that on the evening in question he was driving In Dublin they have shelters, Limerick. He recalled having seen bus from Rineanna to a man walking on the crown of the road. Witness slowed down but the man crossed over towards the to swerve to the right to svoid him.

> that he did not get the impression that the man was deliberately walk ing into the bus. Rather did he gather that the lights had confused

Supt. Colleran then res ment by Miss Dorothy the effect that she was a Protestant Home. The deceased, failing eyesight and was practically blind in one eye. p.m. on the evening in question were brake marks on the road for get labour for building owing to the Racing point of impact. The explained that his reason for rever-astle, Co. Dublin, asks us to pub- a Plymouth Chrysler 26 h.p. It was built on derelict sites.

Prince Grand Master is a American Army officer to drive him The Patrick's Battalion of the Papal and continued to walk towards the lights. Witness felt that he could ss him on the left, but falled to within two > his case on the fact that the bus driver and another person driv-He felt that defendant had fficient time to pull up in 77 feet.

TO BE BUILT BY DIRECT LABOUR

Sites For Houses

That houses would be built under Ennis Road, in which Francis the direct labour system on some Ernest Mason lost his afe, had a of the cleared sites in the city was sequel at the Limerick Liberties a statement made by the Manager regret that we chronicle the pass-Court to-day, when Michael Ring, (Mr. M. Macken, B.A.) at the ing of Rev. John J. Chawke, C.F., Wholes M. W. McGuire J. Connery driving a car in a manner danger meeting of the Corporation last night, the Mayor (Mr. P. O'Connell) which occurred on Monday last in

> Ald, Hartney said that he had read in the Press that in Water- Chawke, served in St. Michael's Coonagh Cross, on the Ennis Road, ford an all-concrete house was being Parish for a number of years after The injured party was going tow-built at a reasonable cost. These his ordination and at the outbreak ards Ennis and the car involved in houses, it would seem, could be of the war was appointed the fatal impact was coming from crected quickly and at a moderate military chaplain of the Seventh cost. He wondered if a similar Brigade in the Limerick area. He Dr. Bridget Crawford. House Sur- scheme could be started in Lime- was deservedly popular with all both legs were also fractured. The houses for the benefit of young soldier. injuries would be consistent with people who wished to get married, suspended in the city because the WALKING ON CENTRE OF THE difficulty was to get a suitable site, estimable chaplains in the Army he was afraid he would have to use of Limerick.

THE CLEARED SITES.

half-penny in the aggregate. That cycling towards Limerick. He re- Ald. Reidy said that there were mains from Dublin to St. Joseph's being so he thought that the membered meeting the deceased plenty of open spaces in the city Church, Limerick, where Office Council should ask the Minister to walking on the centre of the road or, which economic houses could be and Solemn Requiem Mass, prehave the Act again operated in and going in the direction of Ennis. Luilt. He was surprised that no sided over by his Lordship, Most Limerick. If the Act were operated liaving passed the deceased, wit- steps had been taken to acquire Rev. Dr. P. O'Neill, took place

Ald. Bourke seconded and said ing of brakes and then a thud. Wit. Reidy that the cleared sites should deacon; Rev. R. O'Sullivan, C.C. benefit to people who proposed to ness would have been between 50 be taken over and used for build- (master of ceremonies), and the and 100 yards from the scene of the ing purposes. There is a big area chanters were Very Rev. J. Mayor—This resolution will be impact at this stage. On returning to in Lady's Lane, and I have no Cowper, D.D., P.P., and Rev. J. the scene of the accident he found doubt that an industry will not be O'Dea, C.C. WORK ON HOUSING SCHEMES, the deceased lying face downwards established there; it should be used corkers to the effect that they had subsequently reversed The de- plea for the acquisition of derelict ceased's feet were bare, his shoes sites. The city is dotted with dere-

COULD.

The Manager said that before he could use the derelict sites a number of fairly good houses would have Bray; Messrs P. Costello, J. White, witness should wait until the to be knocked in order to get a G. Kelly and P. J. O'Brien (rela Guards would come. When it was proper lay-out plan. At present (ivea). City Surveyor said that no suggested that the injuried party they were building as fast as they should be taken to hospital, the could though progress is slow. He domplaint had been made to driver of the car said he did not driver of the car said he did not would have six houses built by the contractors concerned.

Second car came on the scene and second car the driver went to summon a that policy a number of the derelict itary. Immediately behind came

Weston scheme. - However much we desire speed I'm afraid we cannot get it because there is an acute of Nessen huts be erected on the Manager-I don't know would be of any great assistance because these would have to taken down later on. I'm afraid the people of Limerick would not be satisfied with Nessen huts.

Mr. Whelan-Will you inquire into their possibilities Manager-I will.

SERVICES AVAILABLE.

Ald, Hartney said that the derelict sites should be availed of for All the services were available on these sites and he could not understand why they had not been acquired. It was all very well to build houses in open spaces but it should not be forgotten that transport cost money. connection he should draw attention to the fact that workers in Limerick were not given any con-cession in fares by C.I.E. have on contract were built there would be a great easing in the housing shortage. With regard to the economic house, the only sites available are the cleared areas and He had already a start with building has been made at Crosbie Row.

DIRECT LABOUR.

hear the Manager say the derelict sites by direct labour, owing to ill-health. That policy should be continued, . Manager-And it will when we of the Irish Coursing defendant public and private, After further discussion it submit decided, on the proposition of Ald. Hartney, that the City Surveyor was and of Malta, writing from Howth the car involved in the accident was number of houses that could be at Clounanna.

BREAKING AND LARCENY CHARGES

"We throw ourselves on bung men who, before Judge Barra Circuit Criminal Court yesterday, pleaded guilty to a series of house breaking and larceny charges. accused William Murphy and with stealing man's suit; with breaking and

COAL PRICES

Disclaimer By Ald.

SUGGESTED

It is with deep and is in cere Chaplain of the 12th Battalion, (Mr. P. O'Connell) presiding. Sarsfield Barracks, Limerick, St. Bricin's Hospital, Dublin. A native of Castletown McEnery, Works cost 18 15s, per ton. Co. Limerick, the late Father price for coal now? Gas Engineer-No, because we are not buying any more American us 18 15s, per ton in the yard.

classes, and during his association was admitted to the hospital on the would make inquiries as to what Forces was held in very high 15th November at about 7 p.m. and they proposed doing in Waterford, | regard, not only because of his died on admission. A post-mortem Aid. Hartney-While on this sub- priestly office but also, in addition. the temporal bone of the skull and of building a number of economic improve the lot of the ordinary

Rev. J. Chawke

Passes Away

FULL MILITARY HONOURS

AT FUNERAL

His death at the early age of 39 The Manager said that his big has removed one of the most He was negotiating for a site, but and is a severe loss to the Diocese

FULL MILITARY HONOURS. Full military honours were accorded at the removel of the re-Ald, Reidy said that there were mains from Dublin to St. Joseph's Ald, Bourke seconded and said almost immediately heard a screech. Ald, Bourke - I agree with Ald. O'Donnell, C.C., Rathkeale, (sub-

His Lordship the Bishop gave Final Absolution. There were up The chief mourners included:

Mrs. L. Chawke (mother); Messra T. and M. Chawke (brothers) Miss A. Chawke (sister); Mrs. and Mr. D. O'Grady (sister and brother-in-law); Mr. S. Chawke, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dunne, Miss. M. Dunne and Rev. P. Vaughan, C.C.

As the cortege filed out of the church at approximately one o'clock on its way to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery it was headed the lighting of O'Connell Street was very defective. Some people were that deceased was an old man and of the epinion that there were still appeared stooped to be used in a comparative of the epinion that there were still appeared stooped to be used in a comparative of the bier with the coffin draped with the Tri-colour and a Comparative of the bier with the Coffin draped with the Tri-colour and a Comparative of the high part of the derelict stary. Immediately behind came the bier with the coffin draped with the tri-colour and a priest. policemen attached Sarsfield Barracks, with the No. 3 Army Band

A number of beautiful wreaths from the military were laid on the grave. Mr. Oscar Traynor, Minister for

Defence, was represented at the funeral by Col. J. Hannon, A/O.C. Southern Command. VOTE OF SYMPATHY

At the meeting of the City Council liocese had lost an excellent priest. citizens he tendered sympathy to malicious. the Lord Bishop and the bereaved family. The vote was passed in silence tion. and the members of the Council decided to attend the obsequies as protracted illness he entered engineering Having served for Authority, he was appointed Co. that a Council in 1915, an office he held up number of houses would be built on to two years ago, when he resigned member of the Standing Committee responsible in the pioneer Cork. a report showing the years for the Irish Cup Coursing This resolution was adopted un It should also be mentioned that he was one of the ounders of the Limerick Bohemian Rugby Football Club. able administrator and a con cientious worker, he was frequently ment he received special

POPULAR FIGURE

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS F

> the general public in tendering or these fish in Ireland. and heartfelt sympathy to his widow and family in their bereavement. LIMERICK GARDA "45

The annual "45" Drive in aid of The annual 45 Drive in an of the specific contract with the contract of the specific contract with the contract of the specific contract with the contract of the contract with the contract of the specific contract with the contract with the contract of the specific contract with the contract with the contract of the specific contract with the contract contract with the contract of the specific contract with the contract with the contract of the specific contract with the contract with the contract with the contract contract cont for the moment that defendant was entering the shop of Mary, Augusthe Garda Siochana Benevolent

Reidy

TRANSPORT SUBSIDY

Reference was made to the price that the American coal in the Gas next Circuit Court. Mr. Dillon-Are you paying that coal, but this American coal cost Mr. Dillon-What are you paying for the British coal? Engineer-The costings are not complete vet. Mr. Dillon-Could you give us an approximate cost? Engineer-I should say about 16 2s. per ton.

BIG DISCREPANCY At a later stage, Mr. Whelan adverted to coal prices and said bail. that the discrepancy in price as Limerick was costing 12 4s; per ton more than in Dublin, It was stated that this discrepancy was due to the transport costs. If that were so the Government should be asked to subsidise transport charges to Limerick in respect of coal. The Mayor said that when the night a deputation discussed with him the cost of coal in Limerick. The Minister stated that the only cost of transport. Mr. Whelan-That is an argument in favour of my auggestion that transport costs to Limerick should be subsidised. "SLANDEROUS CAMPAIGN." Ald. Reidy said that he was very slow, for obvious reasons, to take not have said anything at all were keenly interested in his candidature for the Dail were conducting a whispering campaign that he Ald, Reidy) was in some way responsible for the high price of he was not in the coal trade because of the high price of coal and

When talking about the price of Manager—That is my intention, the Tri-colour, and a Guard of Manager—That is my intention, Honour, drawn from officers and coal they had to bear in mind the Denis Clarke. He was not sure, you f160 per year for seven acres. last night, the Mayor (Mr. P. already given, and, therefore, the O'Connell), who presided, said that rumour circulated by certain parby the death of Father Chawke the fles that he was in some way responsible for the price of coul in On behalf of the Council and the city was unfounded and

Mayor-I did not hear anyone mention your name in this connecthera for his slanderous words. to Daly, chairman of the Hired Carmen's Society? refer to him as a friend of mine Ald, Reidy-Because I wanted to and leave it for him. dentify him to you.

friend of yours as he is of mine. Ald, Reldy-Do you say so? happens to be chairman of a Fianna Fall Cumann. Mr. Hickey-Oh, is he? shows all you know about Fianna in

Mayor-We are going a bit too

get a chance. It is very difficult to Stipendiary Steward of the Irish directed to the high price of coal Managing- in Limerick, and requesting him to ting it out and witness said on his many contracts on hands, both Director of the Limerick Greyhound subsidise transport costs in order back. Racing Track. He was also pro-that the price to the consumer in minently associated with the old Limerick would be on a level with Co. Limerick Coursing Club, which that obtaining in either Dublin or emplimented by the Department tising columns, the second of this Local Government for the season's Royal Dublin Society's fficiency with which he discharged Extension Lectures will be given at few years ago he was requested next at 8 p.m. The lecturer on this by the Department to spend some occasion is Dr. A. E. J. Went, Intime in a neighbouring county in spector of Fisheries, who will have which road administration had got as his subject "Salmon and Trout." into a rather chaotic state. This In the course of his lecture, Dr Mr. Ryan did with highly satis- Went will deal with the life hisfactory results. Before his retire-tory, migrations, and quest for food praise of these two fish, which form in from the Minister for his wonderful this country the most important achievements in connection with members of our fresh water fishes. He will deal with the methods used In private life Mr. Ryan was held in their capture, both now and in in very high esteem and regard and ancient times, and the methods used his death will be learned of with to determine age and other details stated to be a native of Castle- profound regret and sorrow in all of their life history. He will also parts of the country. We join with make known some recent researches > lantern slides. To the many people in Limerick and district who are interested in fish and fishing, this lecture should make a special appeal.

BRITISH M.P. AND SIX

DISAGREEMENT

Jury's Long Absence

LIMERICK FLOUR CASE

In the case at Limerick Circuit Court to-day in which Denis Clarke PROPOSED NEW INDUSTRY was charged with unlawfully receiving a quantity of flour, the jury and Co. have secured a lease of and histrionic heights. It w retired at 1,20 p.m. and returned to seven acres of land at Corkanree. Reference was made to the price of coal at the meeting of Limerick Court at 5.20 with the announce set up a crossoting industry.

Corporation last night, the Mayor ment that they had disagreed. The At the meeting of the City Council charming solo singing and actis accused was allowed out on con- last night, the Mayor (Mr. P. its best. Gilbert and Sulliva Engineer (Mr. F. K. Thomas) said tinuing ball to stand trial at the O'Connell) presiding, the Manager

THE TRIAL.

Street, Limerick, was charged with Mr. Whelan-Who is the tender cast, each member of unlawfully receiving a quantity of from? flour, the property of Messrs, P. Manager-Messrs, Eustace & Co. Keane & Sons, Wickham Street, Ltd., Cork. Limerick, and value for about £24. The Law Agent said that well knowing same to have been originally an offer was made on BIG HOUSING SCHEME. stolen," opened at the Limerick behalf of this firm to purchase 40 Circuit Court yesterday before acres of Corkanree at £4,000. The Judge Barra O Briain, S.C.

back for trial; being allowed out on Mr. T. Donovan, B.L. (instructed between Limerick, Dublin and by Mr. J. J. Power, State Solicitor), Cork was extraordinary. Coal in prosecuted, and Mr. K. Liston, S.C. (instructed by Mr. D. J. O'Malley, soir.), appeared for the defendant, counts. At the outset, Mr. Donovan explained that there would be evidence to the effect that the accused had in his possession last July flour which was stolen from Messrs, P. Keane & Sons. He had started to merce was in the city on Monday get that flour as far back as March, doubt as to the fact that it was stolen. The net question involved difference there should be as between coal prices in Limerick and flour was stolen? Would anyone, Dublin and Cork was the increased as a business man, accept that seven acres, and having regard to From details furnished in cost of transport. Gleeson, a messenger boy, would be in a position to get honestly such large quantities of flour so often?

FLOUR TAKEN FROM TURF

STORE. David Gleeson said that last year a messenger boy for Messrs. P. lished. The use of the land as a part in the discussion. He would Keane & Sons. He recalled having dump for timber could not be re- have practically disappeared. seen William Flannery, who was garded as an industry. it not that some people who were also employed as a van-driver, covering a half-sack of flour with some turf dust and taking it towards the turf shed. That night after dustry must be started within two from serious diseases. Tuberc work witness had a conversation years. with Flannery, and some days later coal in Limerick. That was a slan- Flannery took another half-sack of derous campaign. At the moment flour away in the van to the turf if they don't start an industry store in Sexton Street. Witness had helped to put the flour in the also because of the poor quality van. There was a Baby Ford car outside the turf store and witness per year for the whole of Corkknew this as being the property of anree and those people will give transferred about four half-sacks to Limerick he could not underof flour from the flour store into stand why the Corporation should many years past, has been a s houdays early in June. plied that Flannery was on holi get him some flour and witness replied in the affirmative. There was get the flour, nor was there any Council would not be doing badly it is now proposed to carry conversation he took a half-sack of flour from Keane's and carried it cept this tender to-night you can I was slandered before Gerald Griffin Street. He told one be inundated with applications from bution system of the girls it was for Clarke and other centres for this proposed in existing carbonising then went to the accused's place dustry. That is an aspect that we of employment at 3 Upper William must not overlook. friend of Councillor Hickey, Clarke. This was the first week in Guire's proposition, that the tender June and on the following week be accepted. witness asked Clarke if he wanted olled in the affirmative, saying that cepted unanimously. it should be left at Keogh's for him. Aftter this incident, Clarke Mr. Hickey And why do you told witness that whenever he had flour he was to bring it to Keogh's Witness went on to give details Mr. Hickey-He is as much a of further deliveries to Keogh's, of Muintir na Tire, pur Ballyland- that it will be passed on t On one occasion the accused asked ers correspondent | says ; - Last unfortunate consumers. The ness, however, found that it was too heavy and he had to leave it Great work has been done during Humphreys' yard. Apart from the 19 Flannery gave, he was paid been sunk, electricity has been in- tunity, to go over to electricity he asked Clarke if he wanted an perly looked after, gardens rented other half-sack, the accused said Mr. Whelan then proposed that that he could not take it, as the and various other useful amenities demand for Guards were after it. Clarke asked secured. There is still a lot of work siderably.

> WITNESS CROSS-EXAMINED. flour transaction. He did not know take flour from his premises. was quite possible that when Clarke worked. witness said the flour was too heavy that it was then that Clarke to where they were getting it and was stolen, he would not

Messrs. Keane, in whose employ- -Clarke gave evidence along these this have been approved ment his father had been for many lines, mentioning that in the whole Department and it is likely

LEASE OF LAND

Cork Firm And Limerick

Cork firm-Messrs. Eustace

said that he had received, through Mr. Roger O'Sullivan, solr., one feel proud of this "Iolan tender for the leasing of seven acres because the genius of these The re-hearing of the case in and fourteen perches of the lands collaborators was captured by Corporation refused to sell the land At the last sitting the entire evi- and after several conferences it was on Blake's landdence in the case was heard, the decided to lease seven acres at a Prospect and Rosbrien Roadjury disagreed, and Clarke was put pro rata price.

plane factory. PROVISION FOR INDUSTRY, and all that remains now to Manager-An industry will be there. Provision is made for that who pleaded not guilty on twelve in the covenant. I understand have an industry at Corkanree.

that surely will be an industry. Mr. McGuire-If the timber brought by sea, it will be an advantage to the port. Do I take it new houses will from that covenant that an ap- families who will be require proved industry must be started leave insanitary houses in there within a period of two years, particular area. Manager-Yes. Mr. McGuire-I would never agree to the giving of the entire 40 that the area has been reduced to PUBLIC HEALTH. acres to any one firm. I'm glad accepted. Mr. Keyes said that he was not satisfied with the position as it November and December we stood. He would like to have a something in the nature of little more information as to the epidemic of scarlatina and me he was employed in the capacity of nature of the industry to be estab- but these ailments, like go > the covenant that an approved in-Mr. O'Malley-A clause should amongst us, Latest statistics at? At present you are getting £35 are receiving domiciliary treat not see any rush of industrialists within two years.

hesitate to accept the tender before of worry to those Mr. Keyes-All I ask is that we get more information now as to the industry to be established.

tion. Industrailists are not dispo-

Mr. Keyes-If I was sure that creosoting works would be set up in Limerick I would be satisfied Manager-I feel that the City kept going at all costs. Ther Mr. McGuire-If we do not ac-on his back to Keogh's restaurant, be sure that Messrs, Eustace will

Ald. Reidy-I second Mr. Mc There was no other proposition and the tender was accordingly a USEFUL ACTIVITIES Writing in reference to the use ful activities of Knocklong Guild Christmas the Guild expended from will surely come their own funds over £40 towards the relief of the poor of the parish. 1947. A public water pump has preparing, at the very first Subsequently when stalled where needed, roads prothis tendency should become free to those inclined to till them, fectious it must be obvious the on hands to be completed, but backed with sound financial aid, The accused then said to be enthusiasm and unity, there is every hope that with very little position, difficulty all will be ably and comquainted with Clarke until the first Gleeson nor Flannery had a right to Edmond Dunne, Knocklong, said until he had seen Flannery remov- that last year Clarke gave him a greyhound to train and a sack of flour with which to feed it. John Ryan, Murroe, gave evishut. On one occasion he had seen dence that Clarke supplied him and first part of the flour being put quite openly a friend of his with a sack of flour into Clarke's car. When Clarke each, for which they paid £2 apiece. Thomas Hehir, a labourer, swore the opposite side of the street from that, on the instructions of Clarke, yards of a sixteen inch mai Keane's and he beckoned him to he collected a sack of flour from He then asked about store in Sexton Street and deliv-Keogh's restaurant was ered it at William Barry's public a type of depot for country people, house in William Street, where petently dealt with.

STATEMENTS BY Inspector P. Pender proved state him how he was bringing it ments made by accused in July, in Clarke asking to be told truthfully sed flour from Flangery and Glee- the city, particularly on the nor did he remember him saying it was the property of Messrs that he was getting suspicious as Keane. Had he known the flou would not take any more flour. He bought it. He considered he was did not remember Clarke mention paying the controlled price for this ing that Miss Keane was making flour and he sold it to friends and inquiries, but was satisfied that he neighbours in the country, includsaid the Guards were after it, ing his mother and brother, at the the city from Clareville can same price as he paid for it. Ac- availed of, it is proposed to William Flannery said he was a that the flour might be stolen, he As a matter of fact, the pl

The Lord Blahop, Most Ray evidently highly formance gisen by the ju masterly presentation; deligi they were alive, would, no d sparkled in his respective role.

Work on the hundred and twenty-eight he Mr. Hickey-I thought we were tender of a Cork firm at $18 Mr. O'Man'y-A supposed zero- has been sanctioned by the De ment for this particular sci done is to have certain formalities complied with, timber will be creosofted there and project is part and parcel of Carey's Road scheme, by which is meant tha ant I propose that the tender be Corporation, the city continuenjoy a clean bill of health. D is a highly satisfactory stat CONDITIONS OF COVENANT. things. Notwithstanding our Manager It is a condition of climate, Limerick is usually be put in to penalise these people that from the city, fifty patients are in hospital, te Manager-What loss will you be sanatoria, while many more pa

The Municipal Gas Works Manager has referred to the creo- retorts are collapsing, and if sed to show their hand at an early Works be erected on a new

Installation of auxiliary carb

stallation of auxiliary plant

they have been in a defer

WATER SERVICE. higher pressure of water a