

only result in
of one kind or an-
family. Upon the
has imposed the
of educating their roviding for their
and religious wel-
ough they require
fulfilling this grave
cannot shirk it alto-
do, they shall have
eavy account when
e judged.

IN THE TRUE HOME.

home, where the
ues flourish, even
ay be poverty, there
appiness. The chil-
a home will not so
elsewhere pleasures
ad to their moral nes, the entertain-
for children gives
of that "high life"
n is also a dissolute
desire to taste of its akes them an easy
ous companions.

celebrating the Feast
Family, the Church
look to the example
home at Nazareth,
and Joseph stand
odel for all parents,
Lord and Saviour,
of filial devotion and
all children. Surely,
merick, who glory in onfraternity of the
will not forget what
them as heads of

s are made to your right nobly do you
l. But no appeal, I
ill so touch your s as one for that old
ty whose cause I am
to-day. These last
n years of stress and all, and years of
aritable institutions.
rive to-day are good

their prompt and splendid services on this occasion.

Mr. Carroll gave details of plans being made to ensure speedy mobilisation in the event of future emergencies at the Airport, and he intimated that the second ambulance would be equipped and available for such contingency.

DEATH OF MRS. W. SEXTON, ABBEYFEALE

The death of Mrs. Winifred Sexton, a native of Abbeyfeale, and which occurred at Dundrum, after a short illness, and at the early age of 47, is much regretted by a large number of relatives and friends (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). The funeral to St.
Mary's Church, Abbeyfeale, and the attendance next day at the interment in St. Mary's Cemetery were of very large proportions. A lady of many estimable qualities, numerous expressions of regret were tendered to her bereaved husband and to Michael and Jeremiah M.
Moloney, of Main St., Abbeyfeale.
Prayers at the graveside were read by the Very Rev. P. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F.; Very Rev. Dr. R. A.
Harnett, C.S.Sp.; Rev. J. Halpin, C.C., and Rev. J. Liston, C.C.

KILFINANE LAND SALES

A field of 14 acres 3 roods 17 perches (S.M.), at Kilfinane Lands, Kilfinane, Co. Limerick, was sold for £800 and auctioneers' fees by Messrs. J. F. O'Hurley & Son, auctioneers, Kilfinane, to Mr. C.
Fitzelle, Kilfinane. P.L.V., £13 10s.
Annuity, £7 13s. 8d.

shepherds, likening yourselves to the great Good Shepherd Who came that they, his flock, "may have life, and have it more abundantly." Amen.

YOU

OTHE

If you take
of your dan
notice it;
hidden! But
successfully.
from a highly
keeps the sea
baldness.
deeply, acts
complete ans
From all Che

NO
for he

Sole Distributors
JOHNSON (IRE)
(Dept. 100) 6, Crow

