came on the scene of the accident after it had happened. The car was turned upside down, and while he was putting his bicycle against the fence, so that he could give a hand, it fell on its side.

A fine of 7/6 was imposed in the charge of careless driving and 20/- on the summons for not having the car insured.

OLD NATIONALIST PASSES AWAY

By the death of Mr. Thomas Horigan, Ballylongford, Adare, Co. Limerick, at the age of 90 years, the county has suffered the loss of one of its oldest Nationalists (writes our Adare correspondent). Deceased was one of the largest farmers in the district. Of quiet and unassuming manner, he was always ready to give his able and experienced advice to all who sought it. He was held in the highest esteem for his industry and integrity as the funeral from the Holy Trinity Church, Adare, to the family burial ground at Adare bore witness by the large concourse of people who attended it. It was one of the largest funerals seen in the district for some years.

SALE OF NEWCASTLE WEST PREMISES

Messrs. Murphy and Son, auctioneers, Newcastle West, have disposed of by public auction for £2,220 and fees the three-storey drapery premises at Bridge St., Newcastle West, formerly held by the late Miss Hartnett. Bidding, which was brisk, started at £1,500 and continued until the property was declared sold at £2,220 to Mr. R. J. Cussen, solicitor, in trust for Mr. James Nash, draper and harness-maker, Upper Maiden St., Newcastle West. Messrs. Wm. Leahy and Co., solicitors, Limerick, had carriage of sale.

organized by Rev. P. Duggan, C.C., took place at Broadford, on Sunday night last, and proved an outstanding success. The winners were:—1st prize, Messrs. M. O'Riordan and R. Duggan, with 12 games out of 15. 2nd prize, Messrs. J. O'Connor and W. Sweeney, with 10 games out of 15. Special prize for last six games—1st prize, Messrs. J. O'Connor and W. Sweeney won six games; 2nd prize, Messrs. J. Cl arson and D. Shiels won 5 games.

DEATH OF MRS. M. WALL, RATHKEALE

After a brief illness the death took place early on Sunday, at her residence, Main Street, Rathkeale, of Mrs. Mary Wall. Deceased was the widow of the late Mr. Maurice Wall. A kind and gentle lady, the deceased had many excellent traits of character that won the love and esteem of all who knew her and very sincere sympathy is extended to her relatives in their sorrow by the general public in Rathkeale. The funeral took place to the local cemetery on Monday. The following clergy officiated:—Very Rev. Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. P. Lynch, P.P.; Rev. T. Costello, C.C.; Rev. G. Enright, C.C.

FORFEITURE OF MOTOR CAR.

An appeal by the State against the dismissal in the District Court, of two prosecutions against Michael Begley, Dromintee, Co. Armagh, for illegal export and import of a motor car, in December 1945, was heard at Dundalk Circuit Court, yesterday, when Judge Fawsitt dismissed one of the appeals, but upheld the other, and fined the defendant £25, and ordered the forfeiture of the motor car.
