

tion with the deficiency in the general tillage quota and £1 in the charge of having failed to grow the required area of wheat.

LIMERICK MAN'S DEATH IN ENGLAND

An esteemed member of a widely-respected Limerick family passed away at Ashton-Under-Lyne, Lancashire, England, on January 28th. He was Mr. John Kelly, eldest son of Mrs. Kelly and the late Patrick Kelly, 12 Prospect Villas. His father was a very prominent and active worker in the old Limerick County Board of the G.A.A. and his brother, Mr. Patrick Kelly (McKern & Co.), is the present popular Treasurer of the City Board of the same organisation. The deceased, who leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss, was a man of high principles, fine disposition and exemplary character, and his demise is deeply regretted by a very wide circle of relatives, friends and acquaintances. To his bereaved widow and family and his mother, brothers and sisters we extend our very sincere sympathy on their sorrow.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

On Friday last, 24th January, Messrs. Hayes and Son, Ballylanders, gave a demonstration of the working of the Trusty Tractor on the lands of Mr. Michael O'Connell, Tarbrook, Croom. A large crowd of farmers and others gathered to see the cultivator in action, and as a result expressed themselves well pleased with its work and desirous to become owners of this valuable and economic combination.

RENT DETERMINED

At Limerick Circuit Court last week, Judge Barra O Briain determined the basic rent of a house at 4 Westland Villas, Wolfe Tone St., Limerick, occupied by Michael Murphy, at £25 10s. 2d., the original yearly rent being at £45. The figure for the determined basic rent in our columns last week-end was given in error as £25.

Michael O'Connor. The theme of this play is concerned with the glorious uncertainty of a greyhound derby, and since "going to the dogs" has become one of our national pastimes, one is hardly surprised that this play has proved to be so popular with audiences all over the country, so the people of Hospital and district can look forward to a very enjoyable entertainment.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Michael O'Connor, a retired Sergeant of the United States Army, was found dead in bed at his home, Knockane, Newcastle West, on Monday morning. Aged about 74 years, deceased belonged to a well-known and esteemed local family. Leaving the old home town at an early age, he emigrated to America, where he joined the United States Army. He saw service during the World War No. 1 in France and returned to the homeland on pension several years ago. The remains were removed to the local Parish Church on Monday and there was a large and representative attendance at the funeral to Churchtown Cemetery on Tuesday.

HIS FATHER WAS LIMERICK MAN

The death occurred recently at Navan, Co. Meath, of Mr. Richard Clinton Ryan, reporter on the staff of the "Drogheda Independent," elder son of the late Mr. Richard Ryan, coach-painter, of Limerick, who settled in Downpatrick, Co. Down, as a young man. The funeral of Mr. Ryan to Navan Catholic Cemetery was a very large and representative one. The chief mourners were—Mr. Joseph Ryan (son), and Mr. John E. Ryan, a member of the composing staff at Kernsley House, Manchester (brother).

CINEMA NOTICES

Our usual column of Limerick Cinema notices is unavoidably held over. It will appear in Monday's issue.