LIMERICK CATTLE MARKET.

WEEKLY FAT STOCK MARKET, TUESDAY, JANUARY 28th.

The entry for to-day's market was again small. Local victuallers were in good attendance and the small entry met keen competition, reserves being exceeded. Fat heifers, £30 10s. to £32 10s. There was a fair demand for stripper cows, which cleared at current values.—Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.

DEATHS.

KELLY—Jan. 28th, 1947, at Ashton-under-Lyne, Lancashire, England, John (Jack) Kelly, eldest son of Mrs. Kelly and the late Patrick Kelly, 12 Prospect Villas, Limerick. Deeply regretted by his wife and family, mother, brothers and sisters. R.I.P.

O'HALLORAN (Limerick)—January 27th, 1947, James Francis, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. P. O'Halloran, of 4 St. Bridget's Avenue, New Street. Deeply regretted.

SAMMON—On January 30th, 1947, at City Home and Hospital, Bridie Sammon, 2 Coogan Street, Limerick. Funeral from St. Mary's Church to-morrow (Saturday), at 4 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. R.I.P.

IN MEMORIAM.

ARNOLD (Second Anniversary)—In ever loving memory of my dear wife, Anne Arnold, who died at her residence, 20 Pearse Avenue, Janesboro', on the 28th January, 1945. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

Only a memory of a loved one
 And a sigh for a face unseen ;
 But a constant feeling that God alone Knows best what night have been.

The rushing stream of life rolls on
 But still that vacant chair
 Recalls the face, the smile, the voice

Of one who once sat there.
 —Inserted by her loving husband and family.

ARNOLD (Second Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of my dearest mother, Anne Arnold, who died at her residence, 20 Pearse Avenue, Janesboro', on the 28th of January, 1945. Sweet Jesus, have mercy on her soul. Masses offered.
 —Inserted by her loving daughter, Eileen, and son-in-law, Denny.
