

insistent with the car swerved sud- was nothing to in- the cyclist was on point of impact was om the side of the ghan, driver of the s car, said that he mechanic and was ve defendant. Mr. was about 200 he scene of the as travelling on the d at about 20 to 25 . He saw some road. He was on the road when saw Mr. Larkin's and he sounded hen he first saw she was well in e of the road, but suddenly nearing d he had to put on he swung out so e could not pull up l the front bumper e car skidded when brakes, as the road at point. The Rev. fered to take Mrs. tal but she said she d by Mr. Kenny, t he did not appeal sion of the District victing him on a ng charge, as a re- ent. He denied that wrong side of the ime he was 19 years serving his time at Garage.

DEFENCE.

he said that he re- gear coming down eld.

ve a decree for £50 account of what he remembers, and I can only say that it is a case of mistaken identity—an extraordinary case of it. He accordingly gave the plaintiff a decree for the amount claimed, namely, 15/6, with costs, and allowed 5/- expenses.

DEATH OF MR. D. O'CONNOR, CAHERHAYES

There was a very large attendance of the public at the interment of David O'Connor, of Caherhayes, Abbeyfeale, whose death at the early age of 37, and which occurred in a Dublin Hospital, was very much regretted in the Abbeyfeale and adjoining districts of Mountcollins and Brosna, where he was much esteemed and respected for his many excellent qualities. A member of a well known and highly respected family, many expressions of regret and sympathy were conveyed to his bereaved wife and young family, and to his brother, Mr. Denis O'Connor, M.Sc., Master of the Shanagolden Technical School. The interment took place on Sunday in St. Mary's Cemetery, where the prayers at the graveside were read by the Rev. J. Halpin, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Byrnes, C.C., Shanagolden; Rev. Fr. Sheehy, C.C., Templeglantine.

MUTUAL TRESPASS

At Kilmallock Civil Bill Court, before Mr. H. L. Conner, D.J.,

William Kelly brought a claim for £2 for trespass of cattle, the property of Michael Casey, on plaintiff's land and there was a like claim brought by Casey for trespass of Kelly's cattle on his

GOOD PRICES FOR LAND

—oo—

RECENT FARM AND CATTLE SALES

Mr. D. B. Walsh, auctioneer and valuer, Kilmallock and Charleville, has sold by private treaty accommodation holding of 30 Irish acres, at Meadagh, Bruff, for Mrs. E. Barry, to Mr. Christopher Cooke, Knockaney House, Knocklong, for £1,575 and auction fees. Mr. David Fleming, B.A., solicitor, Charleville, had carriage of sale; Mr. Thomas M. Mitchell, solicitor, Hospital, acting for the purchaser.

Residential holding of 45a. 3r. 31p., S.M. (annuity, £7 18s. 9d. half-yearly. P.L.V., £39 5s.), the property of Mr. Thomas O'Dea, Knockardamrum, Charleville, was sold to Mr. Thomas McCarthy, Garrienderk, Charleville, for £2,100 and auction fees. Mr. David Fleming, B.A., solicitor, Charleville, had carriage of sale; Messrs. James Binchy & Son, solicitors, acting for the purchaser.

A most successful sale of 25 dairy cows, store cattle and effects was held recently for Mr. Denis Power, Riverside, Kilfinane. Prices of the dairy cows ranged from £20 to £34; year and a half bullocks, £15 5s. each; bull, £19; milk churns, £3 to £4; and the grazing realised £9 per Irish acre. There was a large attendance, and an entire clearance.

Another successful sale of 17 dairy cows, milk churns, etc., was held for Mr. John Condon, Ballygibba, Kilmallock. Prices ranged from £20 to £25 10s. Milk churns