a neted by Mr. R. Geary, solr.), apleared for the plaintiff, and Mr. M. Danaher. B.L. (instructed Messrs. Bennett and Walsh, solicitors), for the defendant.

After hearing the evidence his Lordship held that the words comdismissed the claim with costs.

ELDERLY WIDOW FOUND

Carass Cross, Croom, where she re- various portfolios on Wednesday was of large dimen- a Mr. Patrick O'Hara. sions, a tribute which evidenced the esteem in which the deceased lady was held.

ABBEYFEALE FAIR

(10th February).

Owing to harsh, cold weather, supplies were below the usual. Calves, 10/- to £2 10s.; yearlings, best, £9 to £12; others, £5 to £7; old cows ("canners"), £6 to £12; better conditioned, £15 to £18; three year old in-calfs, £16 to £22; springers reached £27 from £29; bonhams, £2 to £3 10s.

rick, farmer; and Mrs. Margaret O'Regan, of Ballyagran, Co. Limerick, farmer. The Naughtons' mother, Mrs. Eliza O'Sullivan; Mr. Hickey's mother, and Mr. McGirr's mother were sisters; the family plained of were not defamatory, home being at Gibbonsgrove, Charlebut were words of abuse used in ville. Mr. McGirr's mother married the course of an altercation. He a Mr. John McGirr, a dairy farmer of Louisburg, Co. Mayo, and the parties settled in Parkes, New South Wales, after emigrating over 70 years ago. The new Prime Minister was born there on the 30th of October, 1891. Prior to the out-In the early hours of Tuesday break of the war in 1939, Mr. morning (writes our Croom corres- McGirr's brother, Mr. John Joseph pondent), Mrs. Julia Murphy, a Gregory McGirr, also a member of widow, aged 76 years, was found the New South Wales Parliament dead at the house of Mrs. Moynihan, for many years, in which he held Cabinet as sided for some time past. She had Minister, after completing a world been ailing for some days prior to tour with his daughter, Pat, and her fatal seizure. A kindly, gener- other Australian notabilities, paid a ous and inoffensive lady, she was flying visit to Charleville, where he most popular, and her death came looked up his cousin, Mr. Hickey, as a shock to all who knew her, and afterwards contacted another The late Mrs. Murphy spent some first cousin, Mr. Michael Naughton, years in America, having returned who took him to Gibbonsgrove to to Ireland some time ago. The see his mother's place. The house funeral to Boherard burial ground at Gibbonsgrove is now occupied by raughton, or reonanagh, Co. Line-

MARCH WINDS AND FUEL SUPPLY

From the West Limerick, Kerry and North Cork districts lorry loads of turf have every day for some time back been speeding towards Limerick and elsewhere. Referring to this, our Abbeyfeale correspondent says that "soon the March winds will sweep the turbary areas, bringing a welcome accession of fuel through the clearances of the locked up supplies."

RTHY

O'KEEFFE'S

ERS.