

next year farmers would still be suffering from the effects of the bad harvest of last year and they would not be able to meet the high burden of paying off this big debit balance in one sum. He proposed that the payment of this debit balance be extended over two years.

Mr. R. M. Clery, Co.C., seconded this proposition, which was declared carried by the Chairman.

Mr. O'Donnell then proposed that the estimates, with the exception of this amendment, be adopted.

Mr. P. Clohessy, Co.C., seconded this proposition, which was unanimously adopted.

---

DEATH OF AN OLD GAEL

The death occurred recently of Mr. John Nash, Knockane, at a fairly advanced age, after a brief illness. He was of a kind and generous disposition, a successful business man, and a keen sportsman. He was a staunch supporter of the G.A.A. and was a prominent member of the one-time famous "Knockane" team. He took part in many a hectic game with his brother Jim (a member of the Limerick All-Ireland team, winners of the Championship, 1896). He was also an enthusiastic follower of the "long tails." His loss is deeply felt in his native place and surrounding districts. The large and representative funeral to the family burial ground at Cullen testified to the esteem in which he was held. May the green sod rest lightly on the breast of this true and genial soul.

were reached. Then Blackrock with a typical rally clinched the issue with a goal to win by 2-4 to 1-3.

The Young Ireland team on that occasion were: Paddy MacInerney, Bob MacConkey, Jack O'Shea, Clem Garvey, John Noonan, P. Rahilly, W. Butler, Jim Fitzgerald, P. Downes, Jack Keane, P. Flanagan (R.I.P.), Sean Kelly, Mick Fitzgibbon, Paddy Hartigan (R.I.P.), Michael Hartigan, and T

---

RECENT MARRIAGE

The marriage took place at St. Joseph's Church, Limerick, on Tuesday, 4th inst., of Mr. Thomas Hannan, eldest son of Mr. Thomas Hannan and Mrs. Hannan, Knockaderry House, Newcastle West, to Miss Ina Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joyce, Loughill, Ballyhahill, Co. Limerick.

The Rev. Father Ryan, P.P., Ballyhahill, was the celebrant of the Nuptial Mass with Papal Blessing. He was assisted by Rev. Father McDonnell, C.C., and Rev. Father Boyce, C.C.

Mr. John Hannan, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss M. Joyce, as bridesmaid. The bride's and bridegroom's parents were among the large party at Cruise's Hotel, where the reception was held.

The happy pair, who left in the late afternoon for Cork and Dublin, where the honeymoon was spent, were the recipients of numerous presents and many messages of felicitation.