

partings precede of our loved and I. steamer missionaries, with held aloft, sang others," and those in the hymn; it ly inspiring. In young Holy Ghost veral very young y, perhaps, who board a ship be- hem one and all wn their labours amongst strange, with success. u live in comfort oundings, among friends, follow ad enjoy the vari- s and sports, and shamed that you ver to help those ily and home to f God?

DO BETTER.
quite true, you ct with mission- you will, please e-hearted interest in future.

at that the public Press in future, partures, and so people the oppor- e missionaries a off and increase e work at home. se practical illus- hearted sacrifice, ess the will to ural and the re- ous.

n you help the rk for God and s; the Faith will will benefit here-

GN GAMES

N" merick Leader") ly you published es in connection games ban. I edly with your tter, as do the ority of Irish- In your articles e enough good removal of this ional games. It at such learned the ranks of the for themselves are doing, not nd football, by culous rule, but g youth of our e deeds of Tone, to mention but t to Ireland that fenefathers lar in the morning.

FUNERAL OF MR. JOHN TREACY

The passing of John Treacy at his home, 53 Parnell St., Limerick, on the 7th inst., has occasioned the heartfelt sympathy of a very large circle of friends and acquaintances with his mother, Mrs. Bridget Treacy (relict of the late Thomas Treacy), and with his sister, Annie, and brothers, Eddie and Patrick. The deceased, who had attained his 18th year, had been attached to the commercial staff of the "Limerick Leader, Ltd.," and gave every promise of making his mark in the clerical sphere. Affable and courteous, he had a most likeable disposition, a trait of character which won him many friends. Everyone liked him and spoke glowingly of him. The deep regret at his passing was evidenced by the large attendance at the removal of the remains and funeral, and it also testified to the popularity of his family.

On Sunday last his remains were laid to rest in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The clergy who officiated at the graveside were—Rev. Father White, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Father Minihan, Rev. Father Lyons and Rev. Father O'Dea.

Mass cards were from mother, Annie, Eddie and Patrick; Annie, Eddie, Patrick, auntie, Delia, Delia Moloney, Delia and auntie, Michael and May Laffan, Basket Hill; Vaughaun family, Ardvarna; Denis and Bridget Toomey, T. Fogarty, staff of Morgan McMahan (Novena of Masses), Kathleen, O'Dwyer family, Bishopswood; Ryan, Inchamore; Edward Treacy, Dublin; Mick Moloney, Mrs. B. Berkery and family, Mrs. Margaret Naughton, Patrick Riordan, Ballynulty, Cullen; Mary Berkery, "Limerick Leader" staff, Winnie and Mary, Paddy and Essie McGrath, Ciss Moloney, M. F. Littleton and Paddy, John and Eileen Humphreys and family, Eddie and Maura Bourke, Nell Ryan, Joe Flannery, P. McGuinness and family, Treacy family, Doon South; May Sweeney, May, Josie and Bridie, James and Mary O'Sullivan, Barrington St.; Ryan family, Ahane; May Lynch, O'Connor family, Roche's St.; O'Connor family, William St.

Numerous were the letters of sympathy and telegrams received.

TO WATCH PRICES

A "Citizens' Protection Association" has been formed in Waterf...

Rev. Father Van highly respected me Dominican Order, I native of Aachen, a munications which h from there, the dist tions of those end exist in his native c the charitable assista sible to give.

It is for these Aachen has been s town to which Lime deavour to render s

I am informed by ment of Industry a that facilities will b export certain relief not urgently required try, through the m Irish Red Cross Soci

I feel sure that in the citizens of Limeri on a generous resp very deserving ob though I am aware t many other urgent generosity, the call charity should undou serving of your earn tion.

Subscriptions, no small, will be grate by me or any of t tioned Committee.

Yours faithfully

J. C. HICK

Mayor of

COMMITTEE

Very Rev. Canon M V.F., St. Munchin's, I

Very Rev. J. Cowp St. Patrick's, Limeric

Rev. Father Van St. Saviour's Priory,

Ald. D. Bourke, T.D.

Ald. J. Reidy, T.D.

M. J. Keyes, B.C., T

M. Macken, Limeric

ger. P. J. Meghen, Lim

Manager. P. E. O'Malley, Pre

rick Chamber of Cor

M. W. McGuire, B.

Limerick Harbour A

Chairman, Limerick

Federation. James McQuane, Pr

Trades Council. G. E. Russell, B.C

Federation of Irish

(Limerick Regional B

John Dundon, C

O'Connell Street, Lim

J. J. Johnson, Cha

rick Branch, Irish Re

iety. Michael Lynch, Cha

rick City Executive,

Tire. T. J. Loughrey, Cha

rick Ratepayers' Soci

J. O'Keeffe, Vice-Ch