

assistance to himself in the to the De- e to avail of y a tribute the Dublin gar Co. and Department Were it not p given by Gas Com- Sugar Co. a works could ed. He also deserved tri- Gas Works, k under the in order to s far as pos-

say that the our discus- tment, was of the staff. when con- at all the e included. taken for w the part s in keeping

SHOT

Melody, son Bodyke, Co. f Mr. John was accident- evening last dyke (writes ndent). He Clare County sheet were adopted with satisfac- tion.

Mrs. C. O'Sullivan, Newtown- shandrum, delegate to Congress, gave a detailed account of the pro- ceedings, for which she was accord- ed a hearty vote of thanks.

The following were nominated as officers of the Limerick Co. Com- mittee:—Chairman, Mr. L. Hough, Newcastle West; vice-chairman, Mr. P. Fitzpatrick East Limerick; secretary, Mr. M. Dillane, P.C., Abbeyfeale; treasurer, Mr. A. Horan, Kilmallock.

Mr. M. P. Lenihan was nomin- ated by the Branch for the posi- tion of General Secretary Desig- nate.

GLIN LADY'S DEATH

The death of Miss Elizabeth Houlihan, daughter of the late Mr. John and Mrs. Houlihan, members of old Glin families of the farming class which have given many mem- bers to the Church, has taken place (writes our Glin correspondent). Deceased was sister-in-law of the late Mr. Shaun O'Carroll, one of the earliest organisers of the Gaelic League; sister of Miss Josephine Houlihan, of Todd's, Limerick, and aunt of Rev. Father Houlihan, London, and of Messrs. Patrick and Donal Carroll, vocational teachers, to all of whom, and the other mem- bers of the family, deepest sym- pathy is offered. The funeral to Knockpatrick Cemetery, Shanagol- den, was large and representative. Rev. Father Carroll, P.P., and Rev. Father Connor, C.C., officiated.

the amount calc Company with ant was employe ents' solicitor wo

ATTITUDE

The Justice sa with the case o defendant had b Dublin jury on charge, and the this acquittal int well as the fact State Solicitor w cept the plea on That was a mat sible State Solic Court would acc lity whatever. T a matter for th State was appare cept the defenda State was entitle Court took no r He would accep plea under Secti mum penalty u was £10.

Mr. O'Donovan mention one oth question of spee nesses named O dence, and the J case in Dublin c the effect that t sibly accept th Another man na livan, who also having seen the d iately before th would not contr to the effect travelling at 45 the Judge wa pressed by this dence was that