Justice—You will have to give up the liquor because you will die from it.

MANY SUSPENSIONS.

Defendant—I was in England for thirteen years and I got a tap of the sun. I would be alright if I didn't drink. Will you give me a suspensory sentence and I promise—

Justice—Where will I suspend it? There is a whole page of suspensions here in your record.

The Superintendent said the defendant had been in custody since May 7th last.

The Justice imposed a sentence of one month's imprisonment, with hard labour on the defendant, to take effect from the date of his arrest and concluded by advising him: "For goodness sake give up the drink."

DEATH OF "CO-OP" CREAMERY EMPLOYEE

At the age of 63 years, the death occurred last week of Mr. T. Hedderman, of Rockhill, Bruree. Deceased, who had been in ill-health for a few years, was an old and much-esteemed resident of the district and was for over twenty years an efficient member of the staff of the Bruree Co-Operative Creamery. There was a large and representative attendance at his interment in Bruree.

"THE BIGGEST CHILD."

"You were the biggest child of the lot," Mr. D. F. Gleeson, B.L., D.J., told a man at to-day's sitting of Limerick District Court, who was prosecuted for hurling a ball in a public place in Limerick, and who pleaded that a five-year-old child had enticed him to play ball. He was fined 5/-.
