

a highly popular figure amongst all sections of the community. He is a native of Co. Kerry. His many friends wish him every success and happiness in his new sphere of life.

NUNS BEREAVED

The death occurred last week of Mrs. Anastasia Fitzgerald at her residence, Derrawlin, Bruree, at a fairly advanced age. A member of an old and esteemed family—the Mahers of Fort East, Charleville—she was widow of the late Mr. John Fitzgerald, and was mother of Rev. Sister Kiernan and Rev. Sister Theodore of the Mercy Order, Melbourne, Australia. She was a member of a well-known farming family that was identified with the breeding of high-class bloodstock. She was a lady of very kind and charitable disposition and made a host of friends during a long lifetime, and her popularity was reflected in the very large congregation, representative of all classes, which attended her interment, which took place to Shanavougha cemetery, following Requiem Mass at Rockhill Parish Church.

GAEIL CALLED TO GARDA FORCE

His many friends in the locality and surrounding districts (writes our Kilmeedy correspondent) will join in congratulating Mr. James Joseph Kenny Ballynoe Kilmeedy years. Una Co exacting role, in calls for an all- She enhanced th efforts in the l a placid disposi Throughout, he one of marked

Lister Skelton on the audience acting. In a r outstanding cha retiring and Catherine Wair portrayal. The g was splendidly Carroll, an artis of experience; a with the Dublin ductions; the fast; Anew Mc cently returned reproachable "C filled by Barry guished himsel one of the me Club."

Most likeable given by Denis Jenkins' and "clearness of di tone to the po learns that he much success productions and lin Gate Theat who has been v Company, acqu distinction as waitress, "Miss actor, Kevin E good impressio