

set for what should be a successful gala ever at the Star S.C. On Sunday, July, if the weather is favourable, the Graving Dock will be filled to capacity. Events listed on the programme include the 100 yards breaststroke, 80 yards freestyle and 100 yards of Munster. A high-class water polo game will be the final of the Munster League between Blue Star and the Blue Well. A thrilling race should be the 100 yards chambray at Limerick. G. Hollywell has been swimming well and is expected to signify his intention to compete in the above race. The event comprises A. Kearney, H. Daly, J. O'Donovan (Blue Well) and J. O'Neill (Thomond). The race holds more interest than the swimming feature. The Blue Star men home will comprise the squad for the Senior Championship on the 29th. The general opinion is that Blue Star will win the Munster senior squad, therefore, the Limerick championships will be a trial. The 100 yards (ladies), for which attendance is expected to be 100 metres (senior) and 3, schools senior
