

...cant ground.
crop that I must put in kale. I trust that it is te for this, and as soon as icient early potatoes out, are late, too, this season, ant a few each of Curly urple sprouting broccoli Hungry Gap Kale.

RING CABBAGE.

ay I sowed my first batch cabbage seed. I sowed am's Early," "Flower of and "Offenham." I also batch of "White Lisbon" d to be used as scallions lettuce next April and ow another batch of cabin September to be it next March, so that I a continuous supply of rom April onwards.

LETTUCE.

job to be done at once ning and transplanting of own batch of lettuce. I se along the celery ridges are lovely plants now, going out.

riety was Trocadero, and have made them grow

, too, is in nice condition planting, and this batch ps be the last to heart up ors this year. The seed-are left after the thinning ence to heart up at the ugust, and the transplants on until October.

time I will sow one more ch in a warm position, quick hearting variety, arly Paris Market, in the they will heart up in but I cannot depend on will depend on the weatny case, one needs sunny lettuce eating, and if the s bad, and they do not I'll be at no loss.

so sow soon a small batch King" lettuce out of doors, ng later on in frames or ches to produce hearted November-December.

e a good crop to follow pages or lettuce, as they e nitrogen in the ground, very desirable for leafy

WINTER SPINACH AND TURNIPS.

or winter spinach can be This is the best of the ches to sow now. It is rdy, and will produce il hard frost sets in. Like r counterpart, it will very bolt," go to seed, especiwn in dry, shallow, un-ground. Spinach loves a soil, and if sown thinly in thinned out to six or es apart in time, it will heavy crop of big leaves. y "spinach" for a depend-r and spring crop is spin-This is not a spinach at e leaves are a good subd the plants are hardy and the hardest frosts. late to sow it now, but

MRS. JEREMIAH HICKEY, KILMACOW.

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Jeremiah Hickey, of Kilmacow, Kilfinny, which took place on Friday of last week. The deceased lady, who had been in poor health for some time before her death, was well known and highly respected, and her death, at a good age, evoked widespread sympathy with her husband. An excellent home-keeper, an admirable type of the best in Irish rural life, her loss will be felt by her neighbours, and particularly by her bereaved husband, to whom we tender our sincere sympathy in his sorrow.

The remains were removed on Friday afternoon to Ballingarry Church, where they were received by Rev. Fr. O'Keeffe, C.C., who recited the Rosary. The funeral took place to Donoman the following day, and the vast cortege which accompanied the hearse was a further tribute to the great respect in which the deceased and her husband were held.

Very Rev. T. Canon Wall, P.P., presided at the obsequies, and was assisted by Very Rev. J. Canon Wall, P.P., Croom; Fr. O'Keeffe and Fr. Kelly, Ballingarry; Fr. C.
Moriarty, P.P., Tournafulla; Fr. P.
O'Sullivan, O.F.M.; and Fr. J.
O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

Among the chief mourners were:
—Mr. Jer. Hickey (husband); Messrs. T. J. and D. Toomey, J.
Sheahan and Thomas MacNamara (nephews); Mrs. O'Brien, Clash-ganiff (niece); Mr. and Mrs.
Neville, Ballysteen; Mrs. Hickey and Mr. and Mrs. J. Cussen, Kilmacow; Rev. Bro. Neville, Ballysteen.

Mass Cards and messages of sympathy were received from a large number of friends.

MISS MARY DEMPSEY, ROBERTSTOWN.

It is with very deep regret that we have to record the death of Miss Mary Dempsey, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Dempsey, Robertstown, Foynes, who died recently. Deceased lady was widely known and respected and her death came unexpectedly after a very brief illness.

The funeral to the family burial ground bore ample testimony to the respect in which the deceased lady and her family are held.

The prayers at the graveside were recited by Rev. Fr. O'Byrne, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Cussen, C.C., and Rev. Fr. O'Donnell, C.C.

The chief mourners were:—
Michael (brother), Jack Dempsey (uncle), and Bridget Dempsey (aunt).

Mass Cards were sent by the following:—Michael (brother); Charles O'Malley and family, Foynes; Peter and Kathleen Bridgeman; Bridget Hartney; Mrs. E. Walsh and family, Robertstown.

TURF HAULAGE HIT BY PETROL SHORTAGE

St
re yo th w

J. LYON

M. J