RFECT PLUG

maker in "Factory Fresh" condition

BIG FIGURE

The death of the late Liam Keline, of Garryowen, Big Bill The Piper," as he was generally known-has severed another link with the Gaelic revival days in the city and county of Limerick. He was a man of sterling qualities and a lovable disposition. An outs anding mus.cian, he secured the highest honours in Ireland at the shock at Oriel Park. Oireachtas some forty years ago. His skill on the chanter of the Irish uillean pipes was only excelled by his delicate touch with the chisel, as the national monument at the Republican Plot and the monument to Michael Hogan, the Bard of Thomond, at Mount

St. Lawrence Cemetery, the Blackboy Pike Company, septicand when the Vounteers were formed nptly and in Limerick, and gave loyal ser-vices to the I.R.A. during the sub-Zam-Buk. in troubles sequent years. He became unpopular with the British murder put their gang that his house was burned for three and all his old manuscripts, with reasons. two very valuable sets of al ointment pipes, destroyed. from pain; antiseptic Bill Keane was one of the pioneer members of the Gaelic League in ie broken grazes and germs and dicinal oils

and speed

g process.

should be

ie; not only

burns, but distiguring zema, and rting tired,

Limerick and one of the founders of the Irish Pipers' Club. His name was a household word with the old veteran Irish pipers in Dublin and the first President of the Gaelic League, Dr. Douglas Hyde, paid him a very special compliment at a gathering of the clans at the Rotunda, Dublin, in 1910. A great lover of our own msic, he was a friend and benefactor to the many musicians in his lifetime. Congratulations will be always willing and was rout anxious to give his advice and of the double in the young assistance to those who played the football. Both their juven H.e ancient merodies of Irrand. was truly a "Warrior Bard" and was loval to the "Land of Song." No more will we hear the descrip-

"Fox Chase, Aughrim, or the played with such exquisite skill local clubs will be held . Zam-Buk by a master of his instrument, becessful in Piles. For cause the art of close fingering, or ing, healing staccato playing as it is called, ommended. went with the artist. A man of powerful physique, it was amaztive pibroch

a gifted man and fearless in danger. His old comrades of long ago, in days of danger, formed a guard of honour at his funeral and he was laid to rest in St. Patrick's Cemetery with full military honours, to the sad notes of a Gaelic ament, payed on the Irish pipes ing to watch his fingers when he played some delicate, intricate melody on his pipes. He was truly comes acquainted with th the style might develop into a use bination. On the right wir showed promise and more go-ahead than th locals in the line.

A Great Attraction. There is a great attraction the was good in other pines game. Strain was the pic forwards, and when O'Co

Markets Field on Sund left-wing

pa

W.S

Dundalk have started the s well with victories over I dra and Waterford that the draw the crowd to head The border club must hav ceptionally good eleven th having regard to the deci-(6-0) gained over Water Sunday last. On the previous day, the following at Park were jubilant as a 1 their team's brilliant against Shelbourne; and th speak for themselves, it do that Coach Seliars of Sto has got a wonderful Dund It is going to be a great Limerick's team-building in progress, and the club is munication with an Engli Division player of Scottish He is Kane, a centre-half testify. A lover of Ireland and liberty, he was the first Captain of played for Leeds United past seven years. The played so promisingly again United that they are given chance. W. O'Grady was in that match, and may not be take his place at left-hal The position is left vacant the possible arrival of a ne

The alternative in the mind

Committee is to play a l

Sheehan. The team is. W

Holman and Hartrey; Mill

clair, A. N. Other, or S

Limerick's reconstructed te Gavin, Cusack, Clancy, Str O'Connor. Dundalk make no chang the side which defeated W last Sunday. Their line-out will be: I Beattie, Whelan; McEvoy, Matthews; Macken, Green,

Hamilton, O'Brien. Snap Shots. and to Pike Rovers on the achi minors were successful in t pective leagues, and needles they will be installed favou the cups, which incidents "Battle Of postponed until next week. A special general meetin Monday night, at City Clu meeting will commence sharp, and the election of

for the 1947-'48 season w place. Prospect A.F.C. are off valuable cup and a set of m the winners of their s tournament which they in hold at Caledonian Park fine the competition to mi juvenile teams in their distr the entry fee is 6/- per tea tries should be sent to th Secretary, Mr. C. Mungov Hyde Road, Prospect.

very near future. It is the i of the committee in charge

From Limerick Club. Mr. T. Catling, Chairman Limerick A.F.C. sends the ing, addressed: "To soccer sports fans."

he loved so well. TADHG SMALLE. 5-9-47. Luimneac.

ASSAULT SUMMONS Again it is my privilege