AFTERGRASS SALES

During the past week or two (writes our Hospital correspondent) a fairly considerable amount of aftergrass has been sold in the Hospital district at some fancy prices. A lot of about six acres, adjacent to the town, the property of Mr. William O'Donovan, was sold by Messrs. E. J. Mitchell and Son, auctioneers, to Mr. Thomas Farrell, Rathany, for 48 per acre and auction fees. Another lot sold by Messrs. P. H. Madden and Son, auctioneers, for Mr. Michael O'Halloran, realised 46 per acre and fees, the purchaser being Mr. James Joyce, cattle dealer, Limerick. These figures are more than 50 per cent. increase on last year's lettings. Our Killbane correspondent writes stating that at an auction of aftergrass by Mr. J. O'Hurley, auctioneer, 114 was given for two acres.

LIMERICK CATTLE MARKET

WEEKLY MARKET, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th.

The entry showed a considerable increase and included some choice pens of really good, well-finished hoggets. These drew keen competition and exceeded their reserves, resulting in last week's higher level of prices being again exceeded. The cattle on offer were mostly medium weights and included bullocks, heifers and cows. These met a fair selling trade, a few lots which lacked finish not clearing. Fat sheep, best, 49 11s. to 49 15s., the better price being obtained by Mr. Michael Dempsey, Athlenny, County Galway; seconds, 46 15s. to 48; store lambs, 14 to 15 5s. in pen of fat lambs were unsold at an offer of 17 2s. 6d.; fat heifers and bullocks, best, 28 15s. to 31; seconds, 25 5s. to 26 15s.; fat cows, 24 10s. to 26.—Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.

WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET

Tuesday, September 30th. Substantial increase in milk, full attendance. The entry included a large number of choice dairy cows, which met a fair sale. Trade well sustained, and prices through out the day, with payments fairly and willing to meet, both singly and in groups, were ready at advanced rates, with ready inquiries for promising classes, which drew sharp competition. Quality and colour with superior conformation attracted attention, and compared with recent market prices for choice cows were in favour of vendors. Useful dairy cows of the right stamp sold well. Small entry of in-calf and calving heifers, trading for which was still a most satisfactory wind up, almost a complete clearance in some sections of the market. The Rev. Father Lynch, P.P., St. Michael, Kibstown, topped the market at 120/- runner up being Mr. James Ryan, Moss Lodge, O'Brien's Bridge, at 115/-, closely followed by Mr. James Hinchey, Hollybricken, at 116/- Dairy cows, best, 142 to 149; promising, 137 to 140 10s.; ordinary, 122 to 127 10s. Wm. B. Fitt & Co., Auctioneers.

WEEKLY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET

Wednesday, October 1st. Cattle. The entry of cattle showed an increase on last Wednesday and a better class. Strong attendance of buyers. Beef met a firm selling trade; fat heifers handy weights in strong demand and touched top current values, but secondary and current values. Heiferish cows steadily placed at full values, but secondary and older sorts met a slightly easier market; active trade for prime fat cattle, especially heifers. Small entry of aged and forward stores, which met inquiry; useful, well-bred bullocks with quality easily negotiated at somewhat dearer terms; particularly, choice bullocks which met a better trade than heifers; rates favouring vendors; useful grazing drafts wanted and exchange easily effected; nice small cattle in demand and sold well; thin and poor cattle hard to negotiate. Brisk selling trade throughout the day. Substantial volume of business transacted. Good sell up. Fat heifers and bullocks, best, 136 to 139 5s.; second run, 129 10s. to 135; small, 122 to 127; fat cows, best, 125 to 143; second run, 125 to 128; old, 116 to 120; 2 1/2 year old bullocks and heifers, 124 5s. to 127; second run, 119 5s. to 121 10s.; 1 1/2 year old bullocks and heifers, best, 116 to 121; second run, 99 15s. to 114 10s. Sheep—Extra heavy supply; an excellent turn-out of mutton; usual attendance. Best sheep easy to sell; trade firm and steady; prime wethers and hoggets met a strong demand and quickly placed and touched top rates; full prices paid for finished sheep; secondary sheep also moved out freely at steady rates. Fresh young ewes good trade. Nice store hoggets cashed around previous level. Choice fat lambs freely bid for at top rates; store lambs in small supply, were in keen request. Business in this section wound up with a strong finish and practical clearance effected. Fat middle weight, 172/6 to 192/6; hoggets, best, 186/- to 207/-; second run, 160/- to 185/-; small, 135/- to 155/-; ewes, 130/- to 160/-; fat lambs, best, 156/- to 163/-; stores, 85/- to 115/-; fat pigs, 118 10s. each.—Wm. B. Fitt & Co., Auctioneers.

LIMERICK CATTLE MARKET

WEEKLY MARKET, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27th.

Dairy cows and heifers.—The entry showed a slight increase and included a number of outstanding cows, and with buyers again in strong attendance for home and Cross-Channel markets practically a complete clearance was effected, with the highest prices this season so far. Top price of the sale went to Mr. Michael Punch, Cratloe, who received the record price of £50 for an outstanding rean calved cow, the buyer, a newcomer to this market, being Mr. Leahy, Waterford. In-calf and calved cows, best, 140 10s. to 150; seconds, 135 10s. to 139 10s.; others, 128 15s. to 133 10s.; small, 124 to 126. In-calf and calved heifers, 127 10s. to 128 15s. Stores.—The entry in this Department was again heavy for an after the Munster Fair sale, bidding not as free as recent markets, except for the choice lots which were freely bid for; more of this description could have been sold. The secondary classes had plenty of buyers, and where concessions were made by vendors sales were easily effected. Two and a half year old bullocks and heifers, medium, 123 to 125; two year old bullocks and heifers, best, 114 15s. to 118 5s.; seconds, 112 to 113 5s.; one and a half year old bullocks and heifers, best, 113 to 116 5s.; seconds, 110 10s. to 112 17s. 6d.; others, 18 to 19 15s.; small, 17 to 17 10s.—Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.

NEWCASTLE WEST PIG MARKET

Newcastle West monthly pig market on Tuesday was exceptionally well supplied, having regard to prevailing conditions in the bacon industry. There was a good attendance of buyers from the principal curing centres, while farmers purchasing for home curing also helped to stimulate trade in the market. Fat pigs suitable for curing found a ready market at an average of 48 10s. per cwt., or from 17 to 20, while lighter animals sold at from 14 to 16, according to weight and condition. Bonhams were in ready demand at from 14 to 15.
