PRICE CONTROL FATAL ACCIDENT MON

COMMITTEE TO STANDING

BE SET UP

Our Dublin correspondent wires:

-The suggestion of the Minister or Industry and Commerce to set ip a Standing Committee to the Frades Union Congress on prices and prices control will be discussed sy the Congress of Irish Unions at special delegate meeting in Dub-

The Minister, in a letter to the Congress, stated that it was his dea that this special committee would be regularly consulted by his Department in regard to the princi-

in on Friday

oles of price control policy and heir application to particular commodities The Standing Committee, the etter continued, would meet repreentatives of manufacturers and abour organisations, and would be ree to convey its views to him on all matters affecting prices. The Minister's proposal has also seen conveyed to the Irish Trade Union Congress.

FISH POACHING -----

INSPECTORS' REPORTS Stories of active poaching in the hannon and in all its tributaries were contained in the reports of Limerick Fishery Board's three aspectors, submitted to a meeting the Board on this (Wednesday) tening, at which Mr. A. J. Blood-

Smyth, solicitor, presided. Inspector M. Breen reported that luring the past ten days rivers were again low and clear in the imerick area, and poachers were articularly busy on the first three ays of October while keepers were iff duty owing to the Board's cheme of staff reorganisation. The Sardai were especially helpful in hecking the theft of fish from the vaterways. Listowel, Inspector From Evanagh reported big stocks of fish in all rivers in the area, He believed the coming spawning season would be a record one.

Inspector M. Hickey reported from Longford that he had received reliable information during the past month that there was extensive eel poaching in some of the West Meath lakes. He described his activities, in co-operation with Insepctor Breen, in an endeavour to check the active poaching of the rivers in the Limerick area.

FALL FROM TRAIN

The reports were unanimously adopted.

INSPECTOR'S REPORT ON

The report of the inquiry into the accident to an American boy, John Magennis, who fell from a moving train near Charleville, Co. Cork, on August 1st last, is now available. The inquiry was held on August 18th and 19th in the Boardroom, Kingsbridge Station, by Mr. T. C. Courtney, M.E., Railway Inspecting Officer, on the direction of the Minister for Industry and Commerce.

INQUIRY

The report discloses a conflict of evidence. The inspecting officer came to the conclusion that the boy was leaning out over the door and must have turned the handle of the door himself, thereby causing the accident whereby he lost his life.

He reported that there was no defect in the door or lock; that the

Minister's Proposal Tragedy In Kilrush Mill

COMPENSATION CLAIM AWARD

An eighty-eight years old Kilrush woman was the plaintiff in a case heard by Judge Barra O Briain, S.C., at Limerick Circuit Court, on Tuesday morning last, in which Mary Kiely of St. Joseph's Terrace, Kilrush, claimed compensation for the death of her son, John Kiely, on whom she was partially dependent, from Eileen Mary Glynn and others, trading as M. Glynn & Sons, Kilrush. Mr. James McMahon, B.L. (instructed by Messrs, M. O'Shea & Co., solicitors), appeared for the applicant, and the respondent firm was represented by Mr. Eoin Keane, B.L. (instructed by Messrs.) M. Killeen & Co., solicitors). Mr. McMahon explained that on the Court

June 27th last, while working in the flour mills of Messrs. Glynn, Kiely got caught in the John machinery, sustaining a fractured skull and a lacerated brain from which he promptly died. The re- woman s spondent firm did not deny that ian to the Kiely's fatal accident arose out of allocated and occurred in the course of his month fo employment in the mill. The applicant, went on Mr. Mc-sister named Christina O'Mahoney, neither of whom was even partially not contr dependent on his earnings. The her famil mother had been living with de-ceased, from whom she was given board, lodgings, and clothing, up to she suppo the time of his accidental death. In his He was the youngest son, and lived proper palone with the applicant who, except for 10/- a week old age pension and 2/6 a week by way of food children, vouchers, was totally dependant on 10/- a whim for her existence. He (Mr. 7/6 week McMahon) would submit that dur- This, with the three years prior to his death, old age John Kiely, at the rate of 14 a means of week, earned £500; and that the mother's dependency on these should earnings, amounted to 70 per cent. among to f total dependency, under which balance she would be entitled to receive a meet an sum of £300. Michael Kiely, son of the applidate of his accidental death, and had been given board and lodgings and clothing. He knew that if he could claim dependency on his brother that he would be entitled to compensation, but he had no wish to do this. Christina O'Mahony, a married sister of deceased, corroborated this evidence.

Mr. Keane said he did not dis-pute his clients' liability, nor the facts sought to be established by the evidence. His Lordship said he found in favour of the applicant on all relevant matters. He was satisin favour of fled that John Kiely had, for three years prior to his accidental death, earned £546 from the respondent firm and found that, in the case of total dependency, the amount of compensation payable to the applicant would be £300. He further found that the case was one of partial dependency, but, having regard to the age of the old lady and the other matters brought to his attention, he would be inclined to consider her dependency on her deceased son very considerable. Accordingly, he accepted the submission of Mr. McMahon, and awarded lished in £210 with costs.

To

FATHER

The dea ago of a sequel at list of Li fore Jud on Tuesd

Norah Ke

Cross, Ki

payment of £473 11 of the ch Keating. England The ap

Mr. Sean by Mr. D Mr. K Keating ruary 16t Messrs. (lodged in the sum dependen widow, A to have to the be whose ag to 6 year now bein aunt, No Kenny) child. Inspect Mahon, was mother of deceased and said he was an old woman of over 80 years dition of of age, Deceased also had a brother, lived wi Michael Kiely, and a married country. supposed aunt had children

Mr. K

meet an

mother. His Lo cant and brother of the deceased, of the John Kiely, swore that his mother should be had lived with deceased up to the £5 a mor aunt tov children. the balar in Court,

FOUGI

the prese

Detecti

Cobh Ga

died dur

LIMER

native of Bruff, ar and Mrs Cross (w dent), I inception was stat Cobh.

Cork, sp amongst when th

He to Irish W was a Dromin TILLAGE DEFICIT Limerick