

been from our adver-
the Limerick Cam-
hold a gala convoy Theatre on Sun-
the promoters have nate in securing the radio and recording Duffy, who has pro-
no less than a dozen taking part include
alan, Johnny Maca Smith, and the ol of Dancing. His Mayor will present
edals to the League
ing is now open at prices: 3/6, 2/6, 2/- ey Bowyer will pre-
an.

SHIP WINNER GAIN

Tuohy, past pupil
Vocational School,
Agricultural Scholar-
ellew, has again won the Albert College (also correspondent).
alled that this bril-
first place in the Agricultural Scholar-
on to Mountbellew.
first place in the
Essay Competition

Retreat, The Graan, Enniskillen, last year, has just made his solemn religious profession (writes our Ballyagran correspondent). Rev.
Father Oliver, C.P., Master of Novices, presided at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Father Cormac, C.P. At the organ was Rev. Father Joseph, C.P., who conducted a fortnight's mission at Ballyagran and Colmanswell last summer. Relatives present included the newly professed novice's mother and sister, also an aunt and uncle.

Brother Callistus will now continue his studies at St. Michael's Retreat, Dankeith, Kilmarnock, Ayrshire, the new house of the Passionist Fathers, which was solemnly opened by the Bishop of Galloway at the beginning of this month, and of which Rev. Father Fabian, C.P., a native of Offaly, is Rector. Many relatives, friends and old school mates have wired their congratulations and good wishes.

DEATH.

O'NEILL—On the 22nd October, at his mother's residence, Drombanna, Dr. Patrick J. O'Neill.
Deeply regretted. R.I.P. Remains will be removed on this (Wednesday) evening, at 7 o'clock (S.T.) to Donoughmore Church. Funeral on Friday after Requiem High Mass at 12 o'clock, to the family burial ground at Inch St. Lawrence, Caherconlish.