

of condition to the
a total award of
of charge would be of the language and by encouraging their children to speak it.

An t-Athair O Muirteil declared that no Irishman ignorant of his country's language could consider himself an educated man.

Other speakers were An t-Athair Mac Riocaird and L. Skinner, T.D.

DEATH OF MRS. HYNES, BALLYNOE

The Death occurred recently in the County Hospital, Croom, of Mrs. Julia Hynes, Ballynoe, Ballingarry. R.I.P. Deceased was daughter of the late Francis Ward, Forty Acres, Bruree, who was for many years a member of Kilmallock R.D. Council and was prominently identified with Irish Land and Labour movements. Mrs. Hynes, herself, was active in the War of Independence, being a member of the Cumann na mBan.

The funeral from Bruree Church to the local family burial ground, took place on Friday October 17th, and was largely attended and highly representative of the general public. Chief mourners were:—John Hynes (husband); Mrs. Edmond Connolly (sister); Michael Ward (brother); Peggy and Sheila Ward, Alice Connolly and Mrs. Mary Keogh (neices); Frank and John Ward and Ned Conway (nephews); Edmond Connolly and Edmond Conway (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Madge Ward (sister-in-law). The clergy present were:—Rev. D. Kelly, P.P., Bruree; Rev. G. Ryan, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Kelly, C.C., Granagh; Rev. Fr. O'Keeffe, C.C., Ballingarry, and Rev. Fr. Noonan, Ballyagran.

ARE YOU BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED?

words are as a
as when they

People are
say in a fit of
ism at election
vote for any of
are all much o
This is an intri
attitude, for at
is a choice even apples. No ma
and indifferent
candidates ma
always happen
them will be worthy, or a
worthy, than t
therefore, just
preference in t

Another reas
haustive poll a
desirable is tha
in time to bri
better type of c
fact that there
many abstentio
elections in th
many years b
some excellen
offering thems
electors. The tended to play
of mediocrity,
clearly shows,
sufficient argun

ews!

