

ce.
ETING.
unsatisfactory
ares had been s meeting and
members had
the notice of
It was again meeting, when
hat, with the light is only
restricted area
Apart from ighting system
er of lighted
ed upon, ex-
f considerable
reet and Cath-
are without
ere are suffi-
rds in both
p holders.
instructed to
matter of the
the city with

ION.
uation of por-
present being eting was in putation, con-
of the Cham-
interview the
this matter,
very consider-
ne citizens.

Wednesday next, 12th inst. It is their intention to continue these drives throughout the season. The committee intend to provide valuable prizes, and patrons, old and new, are assured of a hearty welcome. As the cause is an extremely worthy one, we are sure it will receive the support it deserves.

---

NEARLY A CENTENARIAN

The death has occurred, at the age of 97, of Mrs. Sophie Mary Atkinson, of Glenwilliam Castle, Ballingarry, Co. Limerick. She was daughter of the late Captain W. Wilkinson, St. Oswald's, Ballingarry. She married in 1884 the late T. D. Atkinson, D.L., a prominent member of the Co. Limerick Hunt and one time High Sheriff of Co. Limerick.

---

animously elected president for the ensuing year, and Mr. M. W. McGuire, B.C., unanimously elected vice-president.

The Directors had before them a letter received from the National Federation of Irish Ex-Servicemen (Limerick City Branch), appealing for help and co-operation in the fitting out of their Branch Head-have got from his beloved people such manifestations of loyalty and devotion, morally as they came at a time when the Church was being subjected to bitter persecution in Europe.

The Pope, his Lordship gave to the clergy and faithful of the diocese of Limerick his apostolic Benediction.

---

CARELESS DRIVER

—00—

CATTLE DEALER

Mathew O'Connor, cattle dealer, Gort, Co. Galway, was fined £3 16s. expenses at Ennis Court on Friday, for careless driving of a motor car.

Evidence was given that he collided with one of a number of cattle on the Ennis-Corofin road and inflicted two slight wounds on the neck and legs of the animal.

Supt. J. S. Flynn, prosecutor, and Mr. A. J. O'Flynn, Gort, defending, said the driver had not driven at an excessive speed and had nearly got to the cattle when a bullock came from the extreme left and